Republican Conventions Held Throughout Washington.

COUNTY TICKETS IN THE FIELD

State Conventions Held in the Dakotas—Tickets Nominated and Platforms Adopted—Delegates to the Walla Walla Convention

SPOKANE FALLS, Aug 29—The republican county convention assembled at 10 A M and was called to order by Alex Watt chairman of the county central committee D H [illegible] of Cheney was chosen chairman and R Kellinger, of Spokane Falls, secretary

The committee on resolutions presented the following report

Resolved, That as republicans of Spokane county in convention assembled we reaffirm the platform of principles endorsed by the national republican convention of 1888 and heartily indorse the administration of President Harrison We hail with pleasure the near approach to statehood and in this our first convention we congratulate the republican party upon its thorough organization the happy blending in its ranks of our native and foreign born citizens, and the bright assurance of success in the opening campaign

We favor the development of our mining and manufacturing interests, as well as the agricultural interests of the country and to that end pledge our efforts to the support of such laws as will protect these interests from poorly paid foreign labor

We heartily endorse the labors of the members of the constitutional convention from Spokane county and congratulate them and express our pride in the eminent position and success attained by them

We honor the grand body of men who followed the flag of our Union to victory under Grant, Sherman, Sheridan and Farragut and favor a [illegible] and liberal system of pensions for them and their descendants and we believe that the flags wrested from the hands of treason should not be returned

We view with pride the educational facilities of our incoming state and the flourishing condition of our public schools and demand that the grand inheritance of land now provided for their maintenance shall be guarded with zealous care

We approve the wisdom of the constitutional convention in providing for the submission to the vote of the people of the question of prohibition and woman suffrage and in the event of the adoption of either or both, we pledge our legislative representatives to the enactment of such legislation as may be necessary for the strict enforcement of the law

The committee also recommended to the convention the following resolution

Resolved, That the candidacy of the Hon John L Wilson of our county has met with the approval of this convention and we cordially commend him to the republicans of the territory as eminently worthy of their support

Judge Turner offered the following resolution as a part of the resolutions reported by the committee

Resolved, That [illegible] the constitution for the state of Washington [illegible] the [illegible] and urge all republicans to vote for its adoption

It was adopted

Mr Forster introduced the following resolution as an amendment to the committee report

Resolved, That the senators and representatives to the legislature from Spokane county should exhaust all honorable endeavor to secure the election to the senate of the United States of [illegible] from Spokane county who shall be [illegible]

The convention then proceeded to the nomination of delegates to the Walla Walla convention [illegible] H Winston, John [illegible], H L Wilson, [illegible] W H [illegible], H A Clark, J D Sinclair, William M [illegible], J S Browne, [illegible], Pugh, Lawrence [illegible], [illegible] Joseph [illegible], A W [illegible], Alex Watt, [illegible], J W Struck, [illegible] John [illegible] [illegible]

John [illegible] moved that the vote by which Judge Turner's resolution concerning the constitution be reconsidered and offered the following substitute

Resolved, That [illegible] the constitution [illegible] non-partisan [illegible] as their judgment and conscience may dictate

Judge Turner hoped the vote by which his resolution was adopted would not be reconsidered and urged the [illegible] of the endorsement of the constitution by this convention

Messrs Winston, Brown [illegible] stated that the convention had not understood the question when Judge Turner's resolution was adopted [illegible] that the constitution was [illegible]

The motion to reconsider was carried by a standing vote of [illegible]

[illegible] moved as a substitute for everything before the convention the adoption of the resolution presented by the committee

Mr [illegible] said Mr [illegible]'s motion was out of order and that Mr Todd's resolution must be [illegible]

Mr Winston moved that both Mr Turner's and Mr Todd's resolution be laid on the table Carried

The convention then proceeded to elect three state senators Colonel Winston placed Alex Watt in nomination H L Wilson nominated [illegible] B Hyde [illegible] nominated W A Webb of Rock creek William [illegible] nominated Sidney D Waters Judge Turner nominated H [illegible] Houghton and [illegible] W [illegible] nominated B C Van Houten The ballot resulted Watt 81, Hyde 91, Webb 22, Waters 7, Houghton 60, Van Houten 81 Messrs Hyde, Van Houten, and Watt were declared the nominees

TACOMA BADLY SCARED

A Fierce Fire Destroys Several Buildings.

LOSS ABOUT FORTY THOUSAND

The New Engines Probably Saved the Town—A Number of Invalids Carried From a Burning Lodging House

TACOMA, W T, Aug 29—About 10 30 this morning fire broke out in the old skating rink on the block between Eleventh and Thirteenth and C and Railroad streets The lower part of this building which is 75x100 feet, was occupied by Johnson & Roberts' paint oil and wall paper store R Latham & Co's commission store and Knapp Burrell & Co's carriage depository Upstairs, on the C street floor was the musical instrument store of Robert Weisbach and the remainder of the building was used as a lodging house

A very few minutes sufficed to make the building a total wreck and there were some narrow escapes from death Fortunately every one in the building escaped without injury

For about half an hour it seemed as if the fire could not be controlled but as soon as the new engines were on the grounds and were fired up the fire was controlled

The following account from an evening paper gives a fair statement The cost of the building is however underestimated as it was worth not less than $17,000 and was insured for $12,000

Another fire broke out on C street at 10 o'clock this morning about one block south of the place where the fire of a month ago occurred The fire originated in Johnson & Roberts's paint wall paper and glass manufactory in the Denver block, and soon spread to the adjoining buildings In the Denver building was the Denver lodging house Owens's picture frame and cornice factory and Johnson & Roberts's paint shop wall paper and glass establishment, Everything was a total loss, the firemen being unable to save anything

R Latham & Co who had a feed store and were also commission merchants lost everything but an estimate at the present time cannot be made

Weisbach's music store in the adjoining building was totally destroyed, only one or two pianos being saved

In the rear of Weisbach's store Jones & Best who recently arrived in Tacoma from New York and who will open a stationery store in the new opera house block had all of their fine stock of stationery destroyed, Their loss over and above insurance will be between $4000 and $5000

The Denver lodging house John Cornell proprietor lost everything The fire spread so rapidly that it was impossible to save anything The loss on the Denver block alone, which is owned by Dr Dodge is between $7000 and $8000 partially insured

In the building adjoining the Denver block was Knapp Burrell & Co's carriage repository Mr [illegible] Toole manager Their loss will be about $7000 Their insurance is unknown

In the building adjoining the Denver on the north side owned by Mrs. Rice and occupied by Mrs [illegible] Bliss dressmaker the damage will amount to about $[illegible] caused by water It is insured

On C street the buildings on the west side caught fire and at one time it was thought that the whole row would be lost but through the efforts of the firemen the flames were extinguished and the fire again confined to the building in which it originated.

The buildings on the lower side of Railroad street were badly scorched and Dickenson's general clothing store was damaged by heat and water about $500

It is impossible at the present time to give individual losses and the insurance but from the most reliable estimates it is believed that the loss will amount to not less than $[illegible]

In the Denver block which was the largest building consumed there were many laughable scenes In the excitement persons in the building threw trunks out on the roof of the adjoining building which was at the time on fire and they were immediately consumed by flames The same laughable scenes of carrying feather beds down stairs and throwing mirrors out of the windows were again witnessed

In the lodging house were a number of sick people four of whom had to be carried out on stretchers A man after the flames had become well under way was carried out and he was as white as a sheet and apparently in a dying condition A woman who was said to be lying unto death was carried down Ninth street to a place of safety in a fainting condition She has been ill for some time Another man with a broken leg was seen to hobble out leaning on the arm of his wife and aided by a crutch Poor people who each lost in the building consumed went about wringing their hands and with tears trickling down their cheeks bemoaning their loss One of the most laughable scenes was a married woman coming out of a second story window robed in their night garments They were given shelter from the gaze of the onlooking throng by kindly neighbors They saved what they had on

The streets near the fire presented a scene of confusion Besides the stones, mortar, lumber and bricks to be used in new buildings to be erected furniture and articles carried out of buildings near by was piled up in a chaotic state resembling in some respects the storehouse of a second hand furniture establishment

A rumor was current on the streets this afternoon that three lives had been lost in the fire Inquiry was made and the rumor was found to be without foundation Another rumor was to the effect that a man and woman had been knocked down and run over by one of the new engine teams

Some person with malicious intent circulated a rumor that the water had given out in the reservoir in the middle of the fire On inquiry it was learned that at no time during the fire was there a lack in the supply of water There was 1,000,000 gallons of water in the reservoir all the time and 2,000,000 gallons were being pumped in as fast as the water was drawn off

The Denver house was a three story building 100x100 feet facing both on Railroad street and C street and was owned by Dr Dodge The loss on the building will be about $7000

The adjoining building was owned by H S Owens the upper part of which was occupied by a man named Drake as a sort of restaurant His loss is $800 Mr Owens's stock was valued at $3000 and insured for $1000 The building was insured for $1400, the loss on the building being about $2000

The Tacoma Building and Savings Association which was in close proximity to the fire immediately moved all of their stationery and valuables out and transferred them to the residence of Secretary and Cashier Post

THERE IS STILL DANGER

TACOMA, Aug 30—At 1 15 this morning there is still danger from the Denver house fire as the wreck is still smoldering and every few minutes a fresh blaze starts up The firemen on duty say that there is a large quantity of coal oil under all the debris which is liable to explode at any time and carry disaster to the [illegible]

A "BRITISH OUTRAGE"

German Vessel Defies the English Fleet at Esquimalt.

ACKED BY THE HARBOR MASTER

wo More of the Seized Sealers Return to Victoria, One of Them With a Prize Crew of One Aboard

VICTORIA B C Aug 29 — The German hip Hustede which was forcibly taken from her anchorage by order of Admiral Heneage in Esquimalt harbor yesterday and given anchorage in the open and away from he men of war was returned to-day by order of the harbor master to her former position the tug Pilot towing her to her place about 10 o'clock The admiral has since said that the ship must be moved and a squad of sailors will be sent this afternoon to take her outside of the columns of the war vessels The incident has created lots of amusement a bellicose Teuton defying the whole British fleet and valiantly running the German flag to his masthead as a signal that the whole might of the German Empire was behind him It was a scene good enough for a comic cartoon in Punch

It is possible that the admiral might have gone about the business in a more courteous way but he is quite within his privilege in requesting merchant shipping to keep within his lines The Dutchman is an irascible old seadog and Admiral Heneage is a strict disciplinarian Greek met Greek, that is all Nobody anticipates any international complications over the incident although no doubt it will lead to correspondence

ANOTHER SEIZED VESSEL RETURNS

The Juniata Sails Into Victoria, Instead of Ounalaska

VICTORIA, Aug 29 — The Victoria schooner Juniata seized by the Rush and ordered to proceed as a prize to Ounalaska has arrived off Victoria, and will reach port to-night having disregarded orders Her skins 600 were taken at the time of seizure There was no prize crew on board It is generally believed that every schooner seized will return here

THE PATHFINDER ALSO ARRIVES

VICTORIA B C Aug 29 — The schooner Pathfinder arrived from Behring sea to-night Captain O Leary reports that he was boarded by the revenue cutter Rush in Behring sea July 29 Lieutenant Tuttle took 354 skins on board all the guns and ammunition and placed the quartermaster of the Rush on board with instructions to take the schooner to Sitka After the Rush left the Pathfinder headed for Victoria despite the protest of the prize crew, and after a rough trip arrived safely

The schooner Lily reported seized by the steamer St Paul is the property of the owners of the famous Black Diamond.

A DENIAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug 29 — Captain Dan McLean of the sealing schooner Triumph who it was reported had outwitted the revenue cutter Rush when his vessel was searched for sealskins, is in the city and denies the story

THE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALLY INFORMED

WASHINGTON, Aug 29 — The treasury department has received a telegram from Captain Shepard, of the revenue cutter Rush dated Alaska, August 9 via San Francisco in which the captain reports the seizure of the schooners Minnie, Pathfinder Juanita and Lily, of Victoria, B C and the James G Swan of Port Townsend for a violation of the laws in regard to sealing in Behring sea.

THE BLACK DIAMOND SAILS FOR BEHRING SEA

OTTAWA Ont Aug 29 — The government has received word that the sealing schooner Black Diamond which escaped from the United States revenue cutter some time ago, has sailed for Behring sea

SUICIDAL AND ACCIDENTAL

Two Men Dead and Another Probably Fatally Injured.

SEATTLE, Aug 29 — William Llewellyn an engine-wiper aged 25 years was run over by a Puget Sound Shore railroad train last night. His injuries necessitated the amputation of both legs, and his recovery is doubtful

Frank Compston the young Port Orchard rancher who shot himself with a parlor rifle a week ago died at the hospital this afternoon It is now believed the act was suicidal, as Compston tried to kill himself a year ago by taking chloroform

James Welch a painter, aged 35 attempted to commit suicide last night by throwing himself in front of a freight train He sustained injuries from which he died this morning

SARAH ALTHEA ARRAIGNED

The Date of Her Trial Set for the Twelfth of October

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 29 — Mrs Sarah Althea Terry was arraigned before Judge Hoffman in the United States district court this morning on the charge of obstructing the United States marshal in the discharge of his duties in the United States circuit courtroom about a year ago She pleaded not guilty and the trial was set for October 12

During the entire proceedings of the court Mrs. Terry kept up a continual wail

United States District Attorney Carey asked the court to set the case down for trial October 12.

Attorney Reddy interposed an objection to the case being set for such an early date as he claimed that his client should be entitled to a longer delay owing to the recent Field Terry affair which had resulted in her becoming a widow He thought that her misery should be considered before any action was taken toward fixing the day for the trial

Attorney Carey explained that his only reason for desiring to have the case set for October 12 was that Judge Deady of Portland who was to hear the case was desirous of making a trip to Washington and wanted to get away as soon as possible

Attorney Reddy then asked Judge Hoffman if he was willing to try the case to which his honor replied that he was not owing to the fact that he was a witness to the offense with which the defendant was charged

The court ordered the case set for trial on the above date

During the proceedings and particularly whenever reference was made to Judge Terry Mrs Terry's sobs could be heard all over the court room

THE DEMPSEY LA BLANCHE FIGHT

A General Impression That the Mill Was a Reasonably Fair One.

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 29 — At a meeting of the directors of the California Athletic Club to-day a discussion arose in reference to the fouls committed during the Dempsey La Blanche fight It was apparently the sentiment of the club's directors that both men were guilty of fouls but that none were of a damaging character They did not think that La Blanche attempted to throw Dempsey but that the latter fell when the Marine shook him off during the clinch

Director Vice was positive that Dempsey committed a foul by butting La Blanche in the breast

President Fulda said 'La Blanche committed the most palpable foul by striking Dempsey after the gong had sounded at the end of a round If Dempsey had claimed a foul then I think his claim would have deserved the consideration of the referee and he might have obtained a decision, but he foolishly forfeited his claim by retaliating I think that it is hardly possible to fight under the Queensberry rules without committing technical fouls

Jack Dempsey has retired to the Neptune gardens Alameda, where it is said, he will remain for the present

THE CRONIN MURDERERS

With the Exception of Woodruff They Must be Tried Together

CHICAGO, Aug 29 — Judge McConnell this morning decided that all the defendants in the Cronin trial should be tried together with the exception of Frank Woodruff the young Californian Judge McConnell said that in view of Woodruff's confessions it would be manifestly unfair to allow him to go to trial with the others.

All the defendants took exceptions to the ruling against separate trials, and were given twenty days to file bills of exception All then said they were ready for trial.

ENCAMPMENT DOINGS.

Corporal Tanner Sustained After a Lively Debate.

THE MARINE BATTLE AT NIGHT

It Was a Grand Success and Was Witnessed by a Million People—Resolutions Adopted

MILWAUKEE Aug 29 — At the morning session of the national encampment the election of officers was completed Dr Horace P Porter of Kansas was chosen surgeon general W H Childers of Kentucky chaplain [illegible] of New Jersey junior vice commander

The encampment declines to recognize the Sons of Veterans as auxiliary to the G A R because of a disturbing faction in the former

Instead of giving the two women's organizations the Loyal Ladies of the G A R and the Women's Relief Corps a formal endorsement which would be contrary to the rules it was recommended that the encampment bid them God speed in the work

The ways and means of forwarding the Logan monument scheme was talked of at length

A LIVELY DISCUSSION ABOUT TANNER

The chief event of the day was a red hot time over the resolutions endorsing Pension Commissioner Tanner

Perkins of Kansas introduced a resolution thanking the administration of President Harrison for the honor it has conferred on the G A R in the appointment of Corporal Tanner as pension commissioner heartily endorsing the latter's conduct of the bureau and denouncing the bitter malignant criticisms of the press upon his official conduct

General Barnum of New York offered a substitute to the effect that notwithstanding the assaults of the unfriendly press the encampment declared its belief in the integrity of Tanner and its approval of his efforts to do all for the soldiers and sailors that the laws will allow

Campbell of Kansas agreed with Barnum and said 'For fifteen years we have been declaring and others have been uttering the sentiment that the country can never repay the debt due to the old soldiers but Corporal Tanner is the first officer that has made that sentiment a practical reality I believe it to be the duty of this encampment to sustain him in working out that sentiment We should make our endorsements strong enough If Tanner is dishonest or has done any criminal act, we will find it out when the investigation committee, now at work makes its report"

A delegate from Minnesota urged the encampment to stand up to the rack and say that the G A R would stand by Tanner till something was clearly proven against him

Another delegate said 'It is not Tanner's enemies but his friends that are investigating him We should not try to force the administration to suspend this investigation This encampment knows nothing of the details of Tanner's work and cannot pass judgment upon it If we pass the original resolution and the committee of investigation should exonerate him the opposition press would say that the administration did not dare to oppose the G A R and they would have good reason for it

A recess was here taken until 3 P M

In the afternoon Barnum's substitute was redrafted to read as follows 'That we thank President Harrison for the appointment of our comrade James Tanner as commissioner of pensions, and notwithstanding the assaults made upon him we declare our complete confidence in his integrity and our approval of his endeavors to do all that can be done under the laws for the veterans of the war and in connection with him we ask a full investigation into his administration of the affairs of the pension bureau'

This was adopted unanimously under a suspension of the rules

THE NIGHT NAVAL BATTLE

MILWAUKEE Aug 29 — This has been a great day at the encampment as regards crowds The day trains have brought in about 80 000 visitors mostly from Wisconsin and Illinois the great attraction being the night naval battle

Fully a quarter of a million people occupied the beach and the vast amphitheater on the hillside of Lake Shore park was packed with Grand Army men and their wives these seats being reserved for them The battle was a splendid spectacle being participated in by about sixty vessels, about 3000 infantrymen and artillerymen There were fired 7000 rounds of musketry, 8000 shells, 5500 rockets and 20 000 pounds of fireworks were exploded

The plan of the battle was an attack by the hostile fleet, and the landing of the marine force and a repulse by the shore batteries supported by the infantry The line of battle of the fleet was led by the United States man of war Michigan and the revenue cutters Andy Johnson and Fessenden

THE EDITORIAL CONVENTION

An Incident Marring the Harmony of Yesterday's Session

DETROIT Aug 29 — The third days' session of the National Editorial Association opened with an incident which rather marred the harmony of the proceedings A local paper yesterday printed an interview with Colonel Sheperd of the New York Mail and Express, in which the question of sectional feeling was referred to and Colonel Sheperd was credited with some remarks questioning the loyalty of ex Confederates in the South to the Union

It should be stated here that Colonel Sheperd in an interview in a morning paper said that his remarks in the first interview had been garbled and their purport misconstrued

When the convention came to order this morning Dr Cranfill of Waco Tex, moved that a committee be appointed to investigate the mental condition of Colonel Sheperd and J J Steck of Orange Tex seconded the motion which was promptly ruled out of order The remainder of the morning session was devoted to the reading of papers.

In the afternoon T B Eldridge again brought up the Sheperd matter saying that the Southern delegates had decided that, should Colonel Sheperd further address the convention, they would not attend the meeting

NATIONAL BAR ASSOCIATION

The Matter of an Intermediate Appellate Court Discussed

CHICAGO, Aug 29 — At the meeting of the National Bar Association to-day Mr Smith of Pennsylvania, introduced a resolution to the effect that the association favor the establishment of an intermediate appellate court to relieve the glut in the supreme court

Wilson of Minnesota, said that there was no necessity for such an intermediate court and that the evil at present lay in too great power possessed by soulless corporations in appealing cases of the Federal court, the object of which the speaker said, was to wear out the litigants 'Our state courts should have more power and the Federal courts should be restricted in their jurisdiction," the speaker said

Hon Lyman Trumbull of Illinois, supported the remarks of Wilson, and urged a return to the law of 1879, which restricted the jurisdiction of the Federal courts

The matter was warmly discussed, and was finally postponed until the evening session The matter was not further discussed

This evening at the meeting of the general council of the association [illegible] Wells of Michigan was elected president for the ensuing year Mr Wells is Judge Cooley's successor as lecturer on constitutional law at Ann Arbor university

REPORTS ON LEADING SUBJECTS

A [illegible] on the Question of Representation—[illegible] Canal—Ocean [illegible]

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 29 — The commercial conference [illegible] Chamber of Commerce [illegible] Board [illegible] Several [illegible] states represented by [illegible] were present and letters were received from others

The committees appointed some time ago to report upon various subjects submitted their reports

The first report submitted was upon the subject of the encouragement of maritime commerce and increased energy in the construction of a navy The report is very lengthy and contains many statistics showing that the United States stands fourth in rank among the great commercial nations of the world The report urges that other American countries and the Australian colonies would be glad to have closer trade relations with the United States if better transportation facilities were provided It suggests that the law should be repealed requiring vessels in foreign trade to be built and owned in America before being registered It appeals to congress to adopt a measure which will secure a portion of the world's commerce remunerative employment for the people and perfect security from foreign invasion

THE NICARAGUA CANAL

The next report submitted was upon prompt construction of the Nicaragua canal as a means of national defense and commercial development The report declares that it would be a national crime to permit any European power to obtain such advantage as that which would be derived by the United States by the prompt construction of this canal Its importance as a naval station and the meeting place from the east to the western coast of America as well as its commercial advantages is pointed out Resolutions were submitted requesting the states represented in congress to aid the construction of the Nicaragua canal by any proper legislation

A lengthy report was also submitted on maritime defenses of the Pacific coast ports The fact is developed that the present fortifications are reproaches to the wisdom and statesmanship of the country and that in the event of war the Pacific coast would be at the mercy of any foreign power Congress is urged to make a beginning towards proper coast defense at the earliest moment

OCEAN MAIL LINES

Another report was on the subject of establishing and maintaining permanent ocean mail steamship lines The first reference was to the mail service of San Francisco and Vancouver with China and Japan The Canadian Pacific's three steamers are subsidized at the rate of $5 000 per round trip for each steamer while the eight steamers of the two American companies running from San Francisco are allowed $100 a piece for the round trip The report declares that the statement of the facts is enough to condemn the penurious policy of our government in respect to commerce and to excite admiration for the liberal and progressive policy of England and Canada Another striking feature presented is the fact that Australian and New Zealand mails to and from San Francisco are carried by an American steamship company which receives $[illegible] yearly from the Hawaiian government $[illegible] from Australia and New Zealand and about $4 000 from the United States which latter has lately been increased to $[illegible] owing to the dissatisfaction of the New Zealand government

Resolutions were submitted calling upon congress to enact necessary laws and appropriate a sufficient sum of money to enable American steamship lines to compete with foreign subsidized lines running to China and Japan South American ports New Zealand Australian and Mexican Central American and British Columbian ports

All the reports and resolutions submitted were referred to committees

FREE SHIPS

The conclusion of the report made on maritime commerce was greeted with applause

Captain Merry of this city said that while he considered the report an able one he wished to differ with it as to free ships He said every shipowner in the United States was opposed to free ships The captain said it was well known that American ship builders could not compete with foreigners owing to the high price of labor here He thought the real remedy was proper pilotage laws and uniform subsidies to builders of iron ships Another method was the repeal of onerous tax laws In England, if a ship was idle it was not taxed while here a 2½ per cent tax eats up its revenue He moved that a committee be appointed to revise the portion of the report referred to and incorporate the remedies he had suggested

Ex Governor Perkins moved that the report be laid on the table until the reports of the other committees were heard.

A QUESTION OF REPRESENTATION

Samuel Collyer of the Tacoma Chamber of Commerce pending a vote on this motion asked as to the standing of outside delegates He wanted to know if members of the chamber present were entitled to vote or only the delegates sent

President Rankin said he understood this to be a meeting of the chamber, to which delegates of outside organizations were invited

The motion to lay on the table was adopted and the resolutions were laid on the table with the report

C B Stone moved that all reports and resolutions be referred to a committee consisting of one from each delegation present, the member to be selected by the delegation, their report to be made to-morrow

Before a vote could be taken, Mr Collyer again raised the question of representation saying that he did not think it right that the entire Chamber of Commerce should be allowed to stand off the votes of outside delegates

John P Irish supported the view of the gentleman from Tacoma

Irving M Scott thought the point raised by Mr Collyer was covered by the resolution of Stone that all reports should be referred to a committee in which all the cities should have equal voice

Irish said the point was not as to consideration of reports, but as to final vote on the reports after revision

President Rankin said he didn't know what the intentions of the Chamber of Commerce were in calling the conference but he thought the question was one the conference could now consider

Captain Merry said as the writer of the call for the conference he knew it was the chamber's intention to hold a social meeting to which representatives of the Pacific coast commercial bodies should be invited

H Z Osborne of Los Angeles, suggested that when the final vote is taken the vote of this chamber and outside delegates be taken separately thus providing a record showing independent action

Crosby, of Astoria, and McCraken of Portland made speeches upon the subject. The latter suggested, as a compromise that on the final adoption of the reports each of the outside delegations be allowed one vote, and the Chamber of Commerce five This would provide for a proper balance of power

President Rankin finally ruled that the meeting is a session of the Chamber of Commerce to which members of other bodies are invited

Mr Osborne's motion that when a vote is taken finally on any question, each delegation shall be allowed to vote separately, was adopted

Mr Stone's motion was then adopted

The names of the delegations were then called and a committee selected to consider reports Among the members chosen were J W Case of the Astoria Chamber of Commerce M K Snell, of the Tacoma Chamber, and J McCraken, of the Portland Board of Trade

Another session of the conference will be held to-morrow

COAST SEAMEN'S UNION.

Just What Judge Deady Did Say in His Decision.

Case of John Raftery and Jorgen Olsen Against the Ship T. F. Oakes—Letter Extracts.

The remarks of Judge Deady in regard to the Coast Seamen's union of San Francisco, which the dispatches yesterday said were to be posted in the shipping commissioners offices, were made in his decision in the case of John Raftery and Jorgen Olsen against the ship T. F. Oakes. The libellants were discharged from the Oakes at Acapulco for insubordination and neglect of duty, and for inciting the rest of the crew from doing their duty. They were paid all wages due them

It appeared from the testimony of the libellants that they are members of what is called "The Coast Seamen's Union of the Pacific Coast" A letter was found by the mate in the forecastle of the vessel at this port dated "August 9 1888," and addressed as follows John Raftery and crew of T F Oakes, Dear Comrades." It purports to be written by one H Furwell on paper with the title of this Union" and the words "Headquarters San Francisco Cal 613½ East street, printed at the head of the sheet

It reads as follows 'Your letter from Acapulco has come to hand has been read here in the office a dozen times and has caused much merriment It was thought here that he (the master of the Oakes) would try to get rid of you and evidently he is trying pretty hard but the policy which you have followed will make that just about impossible. With reference to weighing out provisions for each man Hutton says there are no law on the point and no decisions either and that the point is a delicate one and had better not be touched but one man should be present to see provisions weighed About keeping up on afternoon watches, he says that Hoffman held that when work was necessary the men will have to do it and further that the men are not competent to judge whether it be necessary or not so you inasmuch as it will be a judge and not a jury's decision you would have in any suit for wages, it would not be safe to try You have your medicen though first in the coals and then at anything which comes along You know as long as you pretend to work, as long as you make no effort no matter how small he can do nothing, as long as you work he can do nothing If only twenty five tons of coal get out per day you are doing as much as you can you know and that settles it

'In taking it so as you may be an hour to do what could be done in five minutes You may be four hours hoisting a top sail and he can do nothing, if his sails blow away you can not help it and so forth You know pretty well how to do that anyhow Then follows a page or so on the state of the sailor market in San Francisco and the prospect for the winter

In summing up the case Judge Deady said

"I have taken more pains and time with this case than the intrinsic difficulty of it demands My reason for so doing is that I am strongly impressed with the idea that the whole trouble grows out of the methods and purposes of the Seamen's Union of San Francisco It appears to be organized for the purpose of controlling the conduct and employment of seamen on this coast to the end that ships shall be navigated in the interest and at the pleasure of the forecastle without any reference to the rights or interests of owners

"Acting on this anarchical idea these libellants undertook to administer to the master the prescribed medicine for his refusal to submit to their dictation by loitering and trifling over their work in discharging cargo at the expense of the ship

But the law will not tolerate such conduct The contract of the libellants bound them to be diligent and obedient in the discharge of their duties They wilfully and persistently violated this contract and were properly discharged and paid off, getting even one month more wages than they were entitled to

The decree of the court will be that the libel be dismissed and that the claimant recover his cost

These 'animadversions' are what have caused such an angry stir in the Coast Seamen's Union and it is not to be wondered at that [illegible] to have his decision [illegible] commissioners offi[ces]

FINER THAN MARBLE

The Novel Scheme Proposed by Claus Spreckels, the Sugar King.

WASHINGTON, Aug 29—A somewhat novel scheme has been proposed by Claus Spreckels the sugar king He has a plan for building an addition to the White house out of blocks of hardened sugar Spreckels maintains that he is now able to produce blocks of sugar whiter than marble and harder The material, he asserts will be less than one half as expensive as marble He guarantees it whiter and to hold color perfectly no matter in what kind of weather and warrants it to stand the wear of time for an indefinite period

The plan includes the manufacture of blocks partly out of the sugar from Louisiana and partly out of beet sugar from Kansas but wholly out of American sugar and the employment of none but American tools and American workmen

PACIFIC COAST INTERESTS

An Interesting Decision in a Timber Land Contest Case

WASHINGTON Aug 29—First Assistant Secretary Chandler of the interior department has reversed the decision of the commissioners of the general land office in the case of the United States vs William Kellum, entryman, and Charles W Maykar as transferee, holding for cancellation Kellum's timber land entry for land in section 30 township 8 North, range 3 West, Oregon City land district. The case came up on appeal of defendants. The local land officers had decided in favor of the entryman and transferee, but the general land commissioner overruled them alleging that the land was fit for agricultural purposes, and therefore not subject to entry under the timber culture law Assistant Secretary Chandler says that after an examination of the records and testimony in the case, he is of the opinion that appellants have, by a preponderance of testimony shown that the tract in controversy is valuable chiefly for timber, but unfit for cultivation, and that only about eight acres of said land if cleared would be fit for cultivation or ordinary agricultural purposes owing to its precipitous, rocky and broken surface

PENSIONS GRANTED.

Pensions have been granted the following persons in Oregon Original invalid Erastus Kidder, original widow, etc Livira Oakley formerly wife of Edward Chattin

FOR THE BRANDY SEASON

The recommendations of the California delegation in congress for additional gaugers for the internal revenue service for the brandy season are all in, and appointments will be made in a day or two

THE INTERNAL REVENUE TAX

Commissioner Mason Anticipates the Removal of That on Tobacco

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Commissioner of Internal Revenue Mason anticipates the removal of the internal revenue tax on tobacco and favors it

The whole internal revenue system can not be abolished "said he," because it would decrease the income of the government too greatly but the tax on liquors which amounts to about $100 000 000 annually will in itself be sufficient so far as the internal revenue is concerned If the tax on tobacco was removed there would be a consolidation of the revenue districts and less collectors would be needed The reduction in the number of collectors I imagine, would be about 20 per cent This percentage of duty collectors could be dispensed with and the business of the office would be greatly simplified as the internal revenue taxes would be collected at the distilleries"

THE 'FLAG IS STILL THERE'

Its Custodian Refused to Lend It to Baltimore People

WASHINGTON Aug 29—In compliance with a request of a delegation of Baltimoreans the acting secretary of war wrote to Mr Appleton, requesting that he lend to the city of Baltimore to be used in celebrating the battle of North Point next month the flag which floated over Fort McHenry during the war of 1812 and gave to Francis Scott Key the inspiration which resulted in his composition of the Star Spangled Banner"

Mr Appleton custodian of the flag, replied that the action of the Baltimore people was an outrage He refused to lend the flag because the occasion was not of national importance

REPUBLICANS IN THE NEW STATES

The National Committee Will Not Be Called Together to Aid Them

WASHINGTON Aug 29—From the expressions made by First Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson yesterday it is evident that the republican national committee will not be called together for the purpose of giving support to the republican organizations in the new states All aid that can well be given by the committee can be extended without calling that body into session

When the campaign closed a large amount of literature was left over and much of this is suitable for use this fall

THE CRUISER CHARLESTON

A Prospect That She Will Exceed the Contract Horse Power Requirements

WASHINGTON Aug 29—The following official dispatch was received at the bureau of steam engineering at the navy department from the Union Iron Works of San Francisco relative to the performance of the cruiser Charleston in the recent trial We are confident that the contract horse power will be exceeded The estimate of 6700 will be within the actual facts The cards are not yet worked out But an estimate based on the boiler performance give indications of a horse power greatly in excess of the contract requirements"

NOT IN FAVOR OF AN EXTRA SESSION.

Congressman McKinley Discusses the Matter With Harrison

DEER PARK Md Aug 29—Congressman McKinley was one of the president's callers to day They discussed the advisability of convening congress in extra session

McKinley thinks an extra session unadvisable and that congress could not well be assembled after the [illegible] from the fourth Tuesday of November and that then there would be but four working weeks and that if by the death of republicans or the election of new members the majority be with the democrats the president would in calling an extra session have assumed responsibility for the action while this would not be the case with the regular session

A WORD TO FARMERS

A Portland Buyer Cautions Them Not to Expect Too High a Price for Wheat

PORTLAND Or Aug 29

For some weeks past many paragraphs have been going the rounds of the press calculated to inspire farmers and others that very high prices for wheat are to be expected In justice to those not able to obtain information for themselves, it is well to glance at the actual situation as it exists We fully recognize the importance to the whole state of good prices for the production of the [illegible] our only desire is to set forth the facts as we see them for what they may be worth to those interested The following are the arguments of those expecting or rather hoping, for higher prices

Reported short crops in Russia India and Australia

As against this it must be remembered

First—That Russia last season harvested the largest crop known for years and that it is understood she still has [illegible] of her last year's crop still unsold, thereby giving her an immense surplus for shipment this season Official and trustworthy information is difficult to obtain from Russia but the fact that she is still shipping freely of wheat bears out the above information

Second—India during the past few years has been gradually reducing the amount of her exports and she no longer occupies such a former position [illegible] Still she is a free shipper of wheat her exports the past year having amounted to over 600 000 bushels [illegible]

Third—While it is stated that the [illegible] crops in [illegible] are undoubtedly [illegible] it cannot be forgotten that this is [illegible] one of the best and largest crops in recent years [illegible] 31,000 000 quarters of wheat [illegible] 600 000 bushels [illegible]

THE BOOK HOUSE

Rev Dr Hammond publishing agent of the book house of the M E church at San Francisco made an address as to the interests of the book house he represents He urged Methodists all along the Pacific coast, from Los Angeles to Puget sound to be a unit for American Methodism and especially for Pacific coast Methodism He urged all to rally around the publishing interests of the church at San Francisco and to centralize our church business interests there so that our publishing agencies may constantly increase in power for good along the coast and everywhere

The question of Episcopal residence at San Francisco being under consideration [illegible] by Bishop Bowman and several members of the conference

ADDRESS BY REV DR LEONARD

Rev Dr Leonard [illegible] the general missionary secretary by request addressed the conference on the subject of the missions of the M E church The missionary society of the M E church has great work on hand That work is great in its extent for it reaches around the world It is great in the agencies employed not less than 2000 persons being employed to carry on its operations Its appropriations for the current year are $1 200 000 The Methodist church carries on its work on the basis of its faith in God and in the people of the Methodist church To attain financial success every member of the M E church it is desirable should be reached

We as a church are enlarging our missionary work from year to year As the demands are far in advance of our resources we must reach every member of our church, if we attain the highest possible success To do this we must circulate our church literature All should take one of our Christian Advocates, the Gospel in All Lands or World-Wide Mission We want intelligence and heartfelt conviction on the general missionary question. The question of benevolence is linked to personal and church spirituality A man can't be a true Christian and be a stingy man The question of benevolence is vital to a true Christ life

You find people sere and then dried up in soul How is this? Because they are stingy God gave his son Jesus Christ to humanity This was God's greatest gift We must have the same spirit to save true Christian vitality To some persons shouting is all there is of religion To stop such persons from demonstration is to bury the duty of personal benevolence We must keep this question before our people To be a live Christian one must be a giver A good many church members are poor because they are so stingy The Lord commits money to his people whom he can trust to use it aright God is faithful to those who are faithful to his cause All should give It is just as necessary for the poor to give they cannot give much they need to give something Fidelity to God's cause brings two things—spiritual blessings and temporal blessings

The missionary anniversary should be the happiest day of the year Don't spring the collection, prepare for it, talk it over everywhere People that do not enjoy giving should not come to such a meeting Stay at home and ask the Lord why you are so mean Keep a record of personal holiness, it will help very much The preachers must handle this matter The presiding elders can do much in this work Get in earnest. Some one will call you a crank What of it? What is a crank? A crank is a man that moves and stirs up somebody Let the Sunday schools be organized In proportion as this is done have our missionary contributions been growing We should raise some two or three millions Let us early double our present contributions

VISIT TO THE HOSPITAL GROUNDS

By the courtesy of the Willamette Bridge Street Car Company the conference, as a body with their families and other friends, made an excursion in the Sunnyside motor cars to Sunnyside and the new Portland hospital grounds Seldom has so solid a body of invalids (?) made entrance into any hospital grounds All expressed themselves delighted with the excursion and with the location and grounds of the new hospital This visit will doubtless have the effect of giving to the Portland hospital a larger place in the hearts and benevolent remembrances of the Oregon conference and others of our local conferences and the Methodists of the Pacific Northwest

THE SESSION LAST EVENING

ANNIVERSARY EXERCISES OF THE CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY

At 8 P M the Conference Educational Society held its anniversary exercises at the Taylor street church Rev J D Requa, of East Portland presiding Services were introduced with singing the hymn Son of My Soul My Savior Dear Prayer was offered by Dr J D Requa Select vocal music by the male quartette

ADDRESS BY REV DR MACLEAY

The first speaker was Rev R S Macleay, D D of California Education is of the greatest importance to all he said Its object is to train Its scope is boundless It touches man everywhere It covers the entire field of man's nature It recognizes the fact that our bodies are the temples of the Holy Ghost And it trains the body for its high vocation and for its divine inhabitant. Education has no distinctions It trains the poor as well as the rich The world has grown tired of husks The object of education is to ennoble the human reason It seeks to make man an intelligent citizen It informs him as to his high relations with God It inspires him to noble achievements It persuades man to love Him who first loved us It improves our sanitary condition It ameliorates the condition of society It makes a more righteous citizenship

Education develops a well rounded manly character Education seeks to create a race of heroes and heroines in the right. How can education accomplish best its sublime work? True education provides for the development of the entire man All short of this is imperfect and so far a failure True education aims primarily to train man for a highly useful life All the children of the nation should be educated A nation has a right to expect and demand that every one of its children shall be educated Education should be comprehensive that one may have an intelligent citizenship How shall this education be given? Some say the nation must supervise and bring to pass this great work Our common schools are the admiration of the world But the nation has always looked to personal influence largely to supplement its own work The education of the people is essential to self government Most people admit that national work is inadequate

The great question is, How shall we combine with the greatest results the national school and the private school? Soon all good citizens will demand that ignorance and its attendant evils be banished from our land Everywhere else the great books of religious faith are used in their schools In the United States the use of the Bible in our public schools is forbidden We should demand in our own land that the Bible shall be used as a text book in our public schools Our children should be taught the duties of a person God Education is a sublime mission God speed her in it

DR TOWER SPEAKS

Dr Tower of Salem was the next speaker The religious college versus the non religious This is my theme, said the speaker This is a live question Most of the colleges of our country are properly called religious The tendency is for all our state universities on this coast to let religion alone They say let the churches teach religion, we teach science People sometimes say every denominational college is sectarian and all others non-sectarian Denominational schools are not necessarily sectarian The non religious school may be sectarian Religion should be blended with college instruction This is so because religious life quickens mental life mental life takes on greater activity at this religious life becomes stronger and power Again, the influences of college life trans idea into college life, and you meet in a form character Two stronger stream common stream of the other. So transforms the character in college life. A young person goes to college, and the leading spirit of that college subject and settle the character of each individual student. Then, our boys and girls need to be grounded intellectually in the principles of religion. Something more than mere religious sentiment is needed to the formation of a strong and solid character Rev Dr Curry once said that a non-religious was worse than an atheistic school, because it does the work of the atheistic school but deceives the student as to its own real character

The non religious school takes the student through material things The religious school takes the student thus far and then conducts him beyond and above the material and leads up through nature to nature's god Another thought Our Christian colleges dominate the thought of the world. They are the oracles on the questions of science Presidents of such colleges, from their position, arrest attention with their statements People regard their utterances as of authority. But if colleges in their influence are adverse to truth, how dreadful and desolating their influence Infidel teachings in non-religious colleges are mighty Only religious colleges can neutralize this poisonous influence. Christian colleges are furnishing the best of laborers for all departments of moral, reformatory and Christian life.

Dr Tower then made a strong appeal for the ample endowment of the Willamette university which for nearly half a century has done a noble work for the young people of Oregon

DR. McDOWELL'S TREATMENT BY DR. DARRIN.

Who Can Doubt Dr Darrin's Skill When Such Men Testify

There is an old saw which runs "Who shall decide when doctors disagree?" That doctors do disagree oftener than the contrary modern history of medicine abundantly proves When a doctor admits that another doctor though of different school, has performed a cure which he and his colleagues of his own school have deemed impossible surely the millenium must be nearing us The following tribute to the gift and skill of Dr Darrin is a remarkable instance of a generous impulse worked out against powerful professional prejudice and is worthy of record

Dr McDowell's Card

72 Oak st PORTLAND Or Aug 21 1889

Dr Darrin—Dear Sir I wish unsolicited, by this to express my thanks to you for kindness and scientific electric treatment you gave me for the moto taxis muscular prostration of back and lower limbs and nervous system generally especially of the optic nerve of the right eye which was caused by severe inflammation cornetis iritis conjunctivitis etc The treatment done me much good indeed I admire your new system of treatment by electricity and your liberal charges May you live long and be a blessing to the race Yours truly

S W McDOWELL M D.

Cured Without Medicine

Card I wish to testify to the wonderful skill of Dr Darrin, who has cured me without medicine After recovering from typhoid fever I was troubled with severe headache and bleeding at the nose and numbness in my feet so I could badly walk I felt weak and exhausted and had but little life in me I was cured by electricity as given by Dr Darrin and now feel better than ever in my life I can be referred to in regard to my case at 147 South Water street Portland

PORTLAND FRIDAY, AUG 30.

HE ALASKA SEAL QUESTION

e sole object of the course adopted and ued by the United States in relation to eal fisheries in Behring sea is to save eals from extermination It is a policy was maintained by Russia in those rs before we acquired Alaska and na still maintains it on her side of ng sea.

ring their breeding season the seals certain islands where under close lations, the United States allows a pany that pays a heavy rental therefor ill a fixed number of male seals each Vessels of the United States are on alert to keep persons of all nationalities own included, from killing seals in the rs about these islands This brings up question as to the validity of the claim those waters are a closed sea " Our rnment however, does not appear to e attempted to make any close definition he extent or boundaries of the sea thus sed "

e fact that the sole right to take seals in Northern possessions is granted to a ic company brings the government er the charge of creating and supporting onopoly, and it has been suggested that United States ought to abandon this em of granting to a company for a fixed the right to take seals, and substitute t such regulations as are usually made preserving game from destruction That e animals should be protected against ghter during their breeding season and n keeping their young, but at other s all persons should be allowed to kill n o regulation of this sort would be practi e. The seals cannot be taken in consid le numbers except when they visit the in their breeding season and then the ng of a proportionate number of the es, while the females are spared does cause perceptible diminution of their bers. It is found that under proper lations the government can obtain a y revenue from the policy that has n adopted, and yet that the seals will inue to multiply, while it is certain that romiscuous killing were allowed, the t would soon be total extermination hen the government grants a special ilege its action is always liable to attack in the present case no other way seems n to prudence There could be no justi ion for a policy that would expose the s to general slaughter and extermina , and yet in no other way than that ch has been adopted could the govern t at once preserve the seals and get an me from the right to take them But e the lease to the Alaska Commercial pany is now about to expire, the govern t should open the bidding for a new e to the fullest competition It may be umed that congress will not materially nge the present law on the subject and efore that the policy of the past twenty rs will be substantially continued and orced There can be no question but it is er for the United States to get a revenue preserve the seals even though a com y shall make money by it than to allow seals to be destroyed

THE PRICE OF WHEAT

Villamette valley farmers in spite of the g drouth during the early summer will a larger surplus of wheat for shipment year than ever before The granaries ~~filled to overflowing and in many cases~~ was necessary to provide additional ac modations. It was found that fall wheat no worse but corn better for the long spell, the grain is harder and a well wn buyer states that it will sell much er on that account The principal rea for the overflowing granaries is that ny farmers did not sell last year s crop n the price went up to 75c, but held for a ar The outlook for the farmer's this is fully as good as last as careful esti es show that there is a deficiency in the at output of the world this year of about 00 000 bushels while there is a large in se in the United States crop Yet it is not y the price will be higher than 75c a bush or our markets here are regulated not by the markets of Europe but also by price of ship charters and when the price up in Europe the price of charters is cor ondingly raised, and the Pacific coast ner gets but very little benefit. Besides corn crop of the world this year is very e, and the poor of Europe can afford to wheat bread only when it is at a low e When wheat is high corn is made to its place and the demand being thus aced the price of wheat will go no higher mers, in calculating upon the price they s to get for wheat should take note of hese things and the wise will not refuse od price one season and be compelled to less the next

WOOL AND WOOLENS

veral woolen mills in New England have ntly closed, and the free trade press is in denunciation of protection as the e The tariff on raw material is said e the cause of the failures although the s in times past, with the same rate of du on wool that now exists, have made l profits. There is now a renewed call free trade in wool Certain manufac rs seem to be willing to destroy a great cultural industry while they keep the efits of protection for themselves here still seems to be an idea in some ters that wool is not a product of labor "grows," and therefore that it should be protected. The same argument ap s to every product of the farm Wool is essentially a product of labor that it s more time to produce a fleece of wool n it does to manufacture it into a suit of hes after it is shorn from the sheep and much labor Last year this whole subject exhaustively discussed and the country eared to think that the wool growers t of whom are poor are as much enti to protection as the rich manufacturers s a matter of fact if wool is made free len goods will be made free also There be no such discrimination in protection manufacturer will not be permitted to m a benefit that he denies to the agricul st ought to be noted that about as many on as woolen mills have recently failed New England yet there is no duty on on and our country furnishes to its man cturers the cheapest cotton in the world

he report of the agent of the Yakima W reservation shows that the Indians there making steady progress There are un takable signs that civilization is making dway among them They now evidence greater thrift and industry there is less me and drunkenness more homes are lt and more children attend school than any previous time. They have rich land der cultivation from which abundant ps have been produced The great draw k is the intermixture between undesirable ites and the Indian race, and this ought be strictly prohibited by the national gov ment

n the contest for the governorship of st Virginia, it is plain that General Goff, o was plainly elected, is to be counted . In a dispatch from democratic sources Wheeling it is said "enough votes have n thrown out already to settle the ques n of Goff's defeat " It is added. "No uds on either side have been found, all es thrown out being upon technicalities "

It is further added that the votes thrown out were "in many cases those of life-long residents in the state " It is simply charged that these citizens voted in the wrong precincts " under a misunderstanding of the law Of course the law was construed by this committee so as to serve their purpose

The carpet mill owners of Philadelphia estimate that the business of 1889 will exceed that of any previous year by $2 500 000 Every mill in that city is pushed to its utmost capacity and over 300 new looms have been put in operation There are 150 mills with a capital of $10 000 000 and this year the mills are expected to turn out $27 500 000 worth of carpets Employment is given to 15 000 hands and they receive in wages every year $2 250 000 Better carpets are made in this country than in England In Philadelphia a large number of the employes are women and they average $13 per week The manufacturers say that protection makes this condition possible

The firemen deserve a word of praise for the splendid manner with which they handled two dangerous fires on Wednesday night Their service was prompt and efficient and a department less able would not have averted a serious conflagration Yet without increased facilities three fires occurring simultaneously in different sections of Portland would be attended by dangerous results The public must not allow an interest in securing a fire boat to die away It is a prime necessity and the city must have it.

There is great prosperity at The Dalles says the Times Mountaineer Several new buildings are to be erected and one or more street car lines will be built and factory enterprises established The coming year will undoubtedly be one of prosperity and unprecedented growth at The Dalles, and her population and wealth in common with the whole state will be largely increased

The public schools of Portland will compare favorably with those of any city of its size, in the United States The attendance in proportion to population has been satisfactory while the expense of conducting them has been moderate The schools will soon open for fall work and preparations have been made for the reception of an increased number of pupils

The revenue of the government in 1888 amounted to $6 32 per capita of population expenditures $4 48, the national debt to $17 71 duties on imports to $3 47, and internal revenue $2 07 The aggregate deposits in savings banks amounted to $1 364 196,550, and the number of depositors reached 3 838 291, making the amount due each depositor $355 41

The West Shore which hitherto during fifteen years has been published monthly is to be converted into an illustrated weekly paper The first number will appear September 14 Mr L Samuel the publisher has shown a great deal of industry and enterprise in building up this paper and the establishment from which it is produced

The opera house at Ritzville, W T was consumed on Wednesday night and the town would have been destroyed had any wind prevailed at the time The dispatches report "no fire protection " Neglect to provide fire fighting facilities, seems suicidal in view of the misfortunes of surrounding cities

The steamship City of Paris has again broken the record from Queenstown to New ~~York. The time gained on her last trip~~ would allow a man to travel from Philadelphia to New York and return It seems that the duration of a voyage across the Atlantic will soon be reduced to five days

Considerable interest is shown in various counties of the state toward getting up a good agricultural display for the state fair which opens at Salem September 16 From present appearances the fair this year both in the agricultural and speed departments will be better than ever before

Pierce county W T is progressing rapidly The assessment for 1889 shows a property valuation of $26 343 000 as against $14,560,000 of last year This is an increase of about 83 per cent and is a remarkable evidence of prosperity

There seems to be substantial unanimity among the people of Washington in support of the constitution made at Olympia It is not probable that there will be any considerable vote against it

It is no use trying to apologize for the result of the Dempsey La Blanche fight or to smooth it over Oregon has suffered defeat we're whipped, and that's all there is to say about it

A Pet Deer Poisoned by Some Unknown Person.

Stolen Property Recovered—The O. R. & N. Bar Tug Launched—Another Railroad Company Incorporated Yesterday Morning.

WHO POISONED THE POOR DEER?—A fellow out in South Portland who has been allowing his cows to run at large, contrary to law, was much enraged when the pound-keeper caught his cows, and imagined that some one had instigated the pound-keeper to attend to his duty. Shortly after, a pet deer which belonged to some children, and which was much petted and admired by all the people around, was poisoned, by being fed paris green on an apple. The poor animal suffered for over twenty-four hours and finally died. It is supposed that the man whose cows were locked up poisoned the deer, and the neighbors have a very poor opinion of him in consequence.

PLUNDER OF A SNEAK THIEF.—A gentleman residing at No. 7 Front street, between Hall and Lincoln streets, yesterday found a silver castor and an alarm clock in his back yard partially concealed under some brush and other rubbish which had been thrown over it. The find was reported at the police station and later in the day it was taken there until the owner calls for it. The articles evidently had been left there by some sneak thief who intended to get his boodle in the wee small hours of the night. From appearances the castor must recently have been taken off some kitchen table, for the receptacles for salt, vinegar, mustard, and pepper were nearly full.

CAPTURING CARP.—The boys are having fine sport now catching carp from the wharves. A great many large fish are caught, and any number of small ones. Boiled potatoes, not too soft, make the most killing bait, but mush or dough, or any kind of swill that can be kept on a hook is good, for the carp is not a dainty feeder. Neither is he dainty fodder, but is chiefly purchased by the Chinese, who pay a good price for them. Salmon, trout, halibut or any other fish which a Christian likes the Chinaman despises, but goes his whole pile on pike, suckers, carp and other water-sogged, mud-eating fish. These and the Chinamen were made for each other.

A BRUTE FINED.—A very aggravated case of assault and battery came up before Justice Tuttle yesterday. It was the case of Fred Ritter, charged with beating Mrs. Maria Peterson in a most brutal manner, and it was tried before a jury. The evidence showed that Ritter had hit Mrs. Peterson over the head with a piece of wood, severely bruising her, and also hit her in the mouth with his fist, loosening her front teeth, one of which it was found necessary to remove. The jury, after being out only a few minutes, returned a verdict of guilty. Justice Tuttle imposed a fine of $40.

THE NEW TUG LAUNCHED.—The new bar tug built for the O. R. & N. Co., by the Willamette Ship Building Company, was successfully launched from the ways above the east side landing of the Jefferson street ferry yesterday morning at 8:00 o'clock. All that yet remains to be done on the steamer before she is put into service is for the carpenters to put on their finishing touches to the tug's house and the painters their ground lead and oil. The trial trip will be made about September 10. She will be steamed up to-day and her engines tried.

IRON ON THE WAY.—The iron for the electric motor line from the south city limits to Fulton Park has passed Omaha, and will arrive here early next week. As the grading is practically completed on this portion of the line, track-laying will be begun at once and pushed forward as rapidly as possible. Work on the line from the south city boundary down Corbett and First streets will soon be commenced, and by the time the power-house and car-house at Fulton Park are completed, the whole line will be in running order.

TO STEAMER CAPTAINS!—Captain R. Hoyt, who has charge of the dredger working at St. Helens' bar, requests THE OREGONIAN to ask the captains of ocean steamers and steamboats to keep clear of the dredge's anchor buoys, and when running close to the dredge to go slow. As steamer and steamboatmen are much interested in the success of the work on St. Helens' bar they will doubtless cheerfully comply with his request. He says the dredge is working well and doing good work.

REPAIRING THE BRIDGES.—The work of repairing the five trestles burned on the O. R. & N. between the Cascades and Hood river a few days since, have been pushed with vigor both day and night, and it is expected that repairs will be completed so that trains will run as usual this evening. Construction trains and crews have been working from both ends, one gang having headquarters at the Cascades and the other at Hood river. A heavy night force has been employed.

FROM HIS VACATION.—Mr. W. R. Walpole, financial secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, returned yesterday from a vacation of two weeks in the neighborhood of Gold Hill, Jackson county. While there he cautiously investigated the upper works of a cayuse with perfect satisfaction to himself, and in consequence thereof he gladly returns to the busy haunts of humanity to take up his accustomed round of duties with increased energy.

ANOTHER RAILROAD.—James Markle, jr., J. C. Carson, E. J. Jeffery, D. C. McKercher, A. Kinney, C. Rockwell, F. A. Moore, and H. Alger filed articles with the county clerk yesterday incorporating the Columbia & Nehalem Railroad Company, with a capital stock of $250,000. It is the corporation's intention to construct and operate a railroad and telegraph line from the mouth of Milton creek at Scappoose bay to a point near the mouth of Oak Branch creek.

CONTRACTS FOR SURVEYING.—Surveyor General Taylor has awarded contracts for surveying public lands as follows: To Charles M. and R. O. Collier subdivisions of T 18 S, R 1 E, about eighteen miles east of Eugene, on Fall creek; subdivisions of T 18 S, R 11 W, and exterior and subdivisions of T 19 S, R 11 W, both near Florence, on the Siuslaw. To George Fitzhugh, subdivisions of T. 31 S, R 15 W, about ten miles from Port Orford.

DEATH OF J. T. HUNSAKER.—Jacob T. Hunsaker, well known among the early pioneers of Oregon, died near Woodburn, Marion county, a few days ago. He came to Oregon from Illinois in 1846 and settled near St. Helens. From that place he removed to the Clackamas, near Oregon City, where he lived many years. He reared a family of sons and daughters. He was buried at Oregon City.

THAT CATALOGUE.—Mr. A. P. Armstrong, principal of the Portland Business College, reports that over 200 catalogues were called for at the college office yesterday. This great demand for catalogues of the school certainly indicates a large attendance during the coming school year. It is learned that already a number of students have registered, to begin work on Monday next.

NEW CIVIL SUITS.—The following new suits were commenced in the circuit court yesterday: Herman Heyeman against G. W. Sayres, to recover $200 75 for goods sold and delivered to the defendant at various times. Hulse, Bradford & Co. against Lloyd Bolts, for judgment in the sum of $96 42 for merchandise sold to the defendant on the 7th of May, 1889.

WHERE IS CHARLES?—Mrs. Emilie Merril, of Muskegon, Mich., writes to Auditor Wood for information concerning her brother, Charles E. Waldron, whom she supposes to be a property holder here, but from whom she has not heard in a long time. Any one knowing the whereabouts of Mr. Waldron will please inform Auditor Wood.

PRICES AGAIN REDUCED.—Professor O. L. Eastman, the well-known photographer, will make photographs worth $5 per dozen for $2 a dozen for seven days, commencing this morning, at his East Portland gallery on N street, between Fourth and Fifth. The gentleman will give his personal supervision to all this work.

STEAMER MICHIGAN.—The steamer Michigan will sail from Portland at 10 P. M. to-morrow for all points on Puget sound and British Columbia.

THEY ARE A NUISANCE.—A petition has been handed to the common council, complaining of the disorderly conduct of certain persons who have built shanties and squatted on Gibbs street, between Multnomah and Willamette, and asking that the chief of police be instructed to remove these nuisances.

ONLY BAR BOUND.—Mr. Fred R. Strong received a dispatch yesterday stating that the steamer Dolphin was at Coquille, where she has been bar bound for a week. It is supposed that some blow has washed a lot of sand into the mouth of the bay, and it is uncertain when the Dolphin will get out.

NEW SECTIONAL MAP.—The new sectional township and county map of Oregon and Washington lately published by Messrs. J. K. Gill & Co. gives all the new counties, newly completed and proposed lines of railroad, and many other things which have never appeared on any map before.

SOLD CIGARETTES TO MINORS.—David Work, who conducts a small cigar store in the northern portion of town, was convicted of selling cigarettes to a minor, contrary to statute, and fined $20. This is the first conviction under this law, which was passed by the last legislature.

NEW STYLES.—The introduction of the new fall and winter styles of hats will be made by C. H. Meusdorffer, No. 146 First street, on Saturday, August 31. His stock is extensive and comprises all the latest and most fashionable styles, is well worthy of inspection.

THE EIGHT-HOUR SYSTEM.—Governor Pennoyer has been requested to address the labor meeting to be held at Masonic hall next Monday night, in advocacy of the eight-hour movement, and has expressed his readiness to comply with the request.

OFFICERS CHOSEN.—The Northwest Society of Civil Engineers and Architects at their meeting on Wednesday night elected Mr. D. D. Neer first vice president, in place of Mr. William Stokes resigned.

MRS. SCOTT-SIDDONS.—Persons subscribing for tickets through Mr. Harry Hastings for the reading by Mrs. Scott-Siddons under the auspices of the Oregon Alpine club will be enabled to reserve their seats the day before they are open to the public.

EVERYBODY should send in orders early for their hot Sunday dinner to the New England Cooking Company, Fourth and Morrison. Hot Boston baked pork and beans and brown bread delivered in time for breakfast Sunday morning.

GREAT JERSEY SALE at E. Meyer & Co.—We will sell to-day and Saturday, a new line of ladies' jerseys, vest front, tinsel braid in all shades at 75 cents. Remember for two days only.

KOHN'S GREAT SALE OF HATS is still going on. Regular $3 hats are sold for only $1 90 each. This sale will positively close Saturday night.

WALLS GOING UP.—The walls of Marquam's Grand opera house are up so far that the joists for the parquette floor are being laid.

ELEGANT SUITINGS are arriving daily at Kohn's merchant tailoring establishment, corner Second and Morrison streets.

KOHN'S SPECIAL SALE of Standard shirts for only 50 cents each commences Saturday. Price holds good for that day only.

BRIEF MENTION.

There is now an unprecedented demand from the interior for all kinds of musical instruments. Hoyt & Co., 107 First, are the leading dealers.

What might have saved Seattle? One of Z. T. Wright's Lindgren Fire Engines. They can be seen at the foot of Morrison street. Every family should have one.

Do not buy a cheap piano when you can get the very best for the same money. H. Sinsheimer, the well-known music dealer at 214 First street, has just received an immense shipment of the famous Steinway & Son's and Chickering & Son's pianos—the best instruments in the world. He also carries the only high-grade organ—the Burdett. He is the only Portland music dealer who buys direct from the factories for cash only.

GREAT BOTANICAL WORK.

An Elaborate Treatise on the Conifera of the Pacific Slope.

The Munificence of a California Banker Aids the Researches of Professor Greene, of the University of California.

Professor E. L. Greene, of the University of California, has been resting in Portland for a few days, after having been engaged for the last three months in gathering notes and materials for an illustrated quarto upon the pines, firs, spruces and cedars of the Pacific slope, including the Rocky mountains.

The projected elaborate treatise on our conifera has a forerunner in a monograph of "The Western Oaks," which was completed and issued in April last.

The patron of this important scientific enterprise is Mr. James McDonald, of the Pacific bank, San Francisco, who has authorized the professor to undertake this work upon our forest trees regardless of expense.

This series of publications which, so far as issued, is said to rank with the finest botanical works that have been produced in America, will do full honor to Professor Greene's reputation as a botanical scholar and to Mr. McDonald's munificence. The whole series, when done, will be distributed gratuitously to the leading libraries of Europe and America, and to private individuals specially interested in the subject of our forest trees.

Mr. McDonald is the first Pacific coast man of wealth to devote a portion of his large revenue to this kind of public benefaction, the publication of costly and valuable books, and his example deserves the warmest commendation.

WHEAT SHIPMENTS.

A Tacoma paper, the Evening News makes these statements:

More wheat will be shipped from Tacoma this year than ever before and less from Portland than previously. Efforts to make it as cheap for ships to enter in and sail out of the Columbia river at Portland as it is from the ocean to Tacoma have proved unavailing and consequently this city will have the best wheat market, not only this year, but perpetually, for it is actually impossible for Portland to compete with us in rates to the ocean. To do it the railroads would have to carry grain from the wheat fields to that city at a rate that would be simply ruinous. As it is, ships are being chartered to load wheat at Tacoma 75 cents a ton less than from Portland, and this enables the Tacoma wheat operator to pay 3 cents a bushel more than his competitor south of the Columbia can afford to do. The result of this condition of affairs is that the farmers of Eastern Oregon and Washington who have hitherto shipped their wheat to Portland over the O R & N Co, will this year send it by the Hunt road and the Northern Pacific to Tacoma. Thus is the advantage of this city as a shipping point being recognized, not only in the region contiguous to the Sound, but in distant points, and the channel of commerce that has been established to flow toward another city is being rapidly transferred to our own.

Taking the relative yield of wheat tributary to Portland and Tacoma this season as compared with last, it is a cheap assumption to assert that more wheat than ever before will be shipped from Tacoma and less from this port. The records of daily receipts will prove to those interested the untruth of the assertion. Portland buyers can pay, and are paying at least as much as their competitors, and farmers upon the lines of the respective roads can not be misled by reports to the contrary.

The efforts made by the Board of Trade of this city, whereby towage and pilotage were reduced and the sailor crimping houses brought within the pale of the law, have been entirely successful in putting our port charges at least upon a level with those on Puget sound. Some shipowners doubtless ask more freight from Portland. This is a legacy of excessive charges of the past, only to be expected. It is not justified by the facts as they now exist. Owners already are realizing this, and further, that some advantages exist at Portland which can never be enjoyed at Tacoma.

A case in point may be given. One of the first vessels loading in the Columbia river under the new regime of reduced charges cleared with even less expenses than a similar ship could have been dispatched for at Tacoma. We believe we violate no confidence by giving the vessel's name, the Westland, and shipowners generally may do well to consult the owners of the ship to show that our reduced charges are a fact and not a promise. The comparative dispatch and economy of Portland as against Tacoma in wheat shipments shows that Portland will maintain her grip upon the wheat trade against all competitors.

BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS AND HOMES.

The workingmen of the United States own more homes than those of any country. Building and loan associations are supported by the middle and poorer classes of society. There are 4000 such organizations in the United States, controlling property valued at $300,000,000, into which during 1889 it is estimated there will be paid $65 000 000. Yet the single tax theorist claims that poor men are getting poorer all the time. The first building association was organized at Philadelphia in 1831. In nineteen years from that time fifty were established in that city and at this time in Pennsylvania over $17,000,000 annually are saved by the workingmen through this method.

New York, Massachusetts and Connecticut were tardier in appreciating these benefits, and the people of those states did not fully grasp the idea until 1877 and 1883 when liberal laws were enacted protecting building associations. The sum of $2 000 000 will be paid into them this year in Massachusetts. In 1846 Maryland organized a building institution, and to day there are 191 such in the state, of which 158 are located in Baltimore. Ohio has 625, Illinois has 500, of which 300 are in Chicago.

In Minnesota there are 100 and it is estimated that from 8000 to 10,000 homes have been built through their instrumentality. Their popularity is increasing in Wisconsin. In Indianapolis there are 100. The Southern states began to take an interest in them and since 1882 many flourish from Virginia to Texas. The city of New Orleans has the greatest number in operation of any Southern city.

There is scarcely a doubt but that there is a movement by workingmen in all sections of the country to encourage building and loan associations. It is usually a stable and safe way of investing surplus earnings and cases where money has been lost through them are rare and never except where officials have proven defaulters. These institutions stimulate thrift, energy, promptness and frugality and above all stability of character and a desire to promote the highest welfare of a community. All good men aim for betterment of condition and when a man acquires a property interest in the community he secures a vital interest in the preservation of order and has little sympathy with socialistic tendencies. The conditions of prosperity like this for workingmen are possible in no country but our own.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Land grabbing is alluring [illegible] the last degree to people who have the fault of wanting to own the world. Over in Washington the tide lands furnish a desirable grab to these greedy kind and the question of how high tides rise and how low they fall furnish an element of uncertainty that increases the interest. Tide lands have been dyked at La Conner and the product of 125 bushels of oats to the acre is realized by cultivation. Many farmers have located land so that they farm the land that the tides have covered and there must arise many questions as to ownership of such lands which are often worth when dyked $100 an acre.

Complaints are made that the crop reports published are not correct. It is not easy to be correct and less easy to satisfy all. On the average the reports weekly issued are satisfactory [illegible] cially so in the sense that while the eastern country has experienced a terrible season of d[illegible] yet the wheat fields of the Inland Empire will turn off a large aggregate for export and Western Oregon more perhaps than ever before. An Astoria paper says their crop will average with other years, while a [illegible] the crop there is not as good as has been [illegible] is a wonderfully good [illegible] to produce as well as Eastern Oregon and W[illegible] [illegible] year.

It is [illegible] to hear the story of the [illegible] Chinamen who were arrested [illegible] unlawfully [illegible] from whence they came. But [illegible] by law [illegible] McN[illegible] to Victoria [illegible] that [illegible] knot is [illegible] lucky baker's dozen [illegible] No law is broken [illegible] and the expense [illegible] Chinamen have [illegible] the hop pickings.

King Humbert and his queen [illegible] perdition. Immediately after the [illegible] the Bruno statue—which was [illegible] tion of papal infallibility—his cabinet [illegible] excommunicated them with [illegible] church. Since then it is said that the Roman pontiff desires to remove the seat of the papacy from Rome and establish it in some land [illegible] to its principles. It is a sufficient commentary on the respect due the papacy to say that the only civilized nation supposed to be adapted to this purpose is Spain, and it is because Spain is less civilized than other Christian nations that this adaptation exists. When Italy became so emancipated from prejudice as to be able to rear and dedicate a statue to the Roman martyr Bruno, it was no longer a home for Roman infallibility, which three long cycles ago had dedicated Bruno to the faggot. These facts constitute the ground work of the maledictions that the Holy Father lately buried against Italy's king and queen. Centuries ago, when the world was enslaved to papal power, kings and emperors lived and died under the ban of the church, and if King Humbert has to do so it will be papal Rome and not Italy's king that will suffer. The futility of such an imprecation—for excommunication is imprecation intensified—will be so apparent that the curse will only come home to its author.

At a regular session the Kearney Kansas Ministers Association made a request of the Enterprise to discontinue its Sunday issue. The publisher respectfully considered the matter and declined. He knows the day and year are come when the people will have newspapers all days in the year. The time is gone by when the world practices the old fashioned virtues in the old fashioned way. Steam and electricity railroads and ocean steamers, telegrams and daily mails, have superseded all the slowness our fathers made a virtue of because it was a necessity, and now it remains for the church to put the Sabbath en rapport with science and make its holiness as useful to the new order of things as to the old. That is what must be and will be done.

Prohibition in Kansas works at a disadvantage to judge from the tone of the local newspapers. At Atchison, on the Fourth of July numerous beer stands sold the foamy beverage to all comers and were not troubled. The liquor law was nominally in force but it was not practically enforced. So prohibition does not prohibit. At Wichita they had spotters at work acquiring evidence against the joints and are not able to prosecute offenders until their agents sober up. It was necessary for them to participate to become effective witnesses and on the same principle it may be necessary to become a practical thief and highway robber to convict a gang of this class of criminals. In many respects attempts to enforce prohibition operate so unsatisfactorily that the remedy seems worse than the disease.

The international labor congress in session in Paris demands as universal the maximum of eight hours as a day's labor, one holiday weekly and the unconditional suppression of all labor by children under 14 years of age. An exchange sneers at this paragraph, and says the weekly holiday should last all the week. But the labor problem is no trivial question to sneer at. The world is undergoing wonderful changes in connection with labor, and the question of importance that looks the world in the face is: How shall labor be divided among working people so that all can live? Shorter working hours and a weekly holiday will do much for that end. Labor is certain to grow stronger as a governing political force and if it manages affairs with judgment it will secure greater privileges and ease of life and not lose anything but gain all that the world's progress can ever afford.

A contemporary says "the greatest curse the people face is the insatiate greed of moneyed men who have no sympathy with suffering humanity." It alludes to gigantic trusts, where five combinations control $220 000,000 of capital. The natural tendency of business is to form combinations for profit and one reason why they exist is that it is hardly possible for a small concern to maintain itself. In all business we see great combinations replace the many and the many working together as one succeed better than if each was competing against the rest. This is natural and simple and fair as it means self preservation, but it is the conspiring of great wealth to control staples of life and make the world pay extortionate prices that is objected to and must be checked. Wealth is not inhuman, for when word went forth that Johnstown was swept away and that our neighbor cities were destroyed by fire, rich men were generous in giving. It is not necessary or proper to exaggerate or to abuse wealth but far better to accept the facts as natural and to be expected, and take steps to protect the people from extortion and conspiracy. There is usually a remedy for an evil, and all we can do is to find the cause and apply the remedy.

For ages Switzerland has had its freedom and so natural is it to associate mountains and freedom in unison that the poet, as a matter of course, wrote his lines "When freedom from its mountain height unfurled its banner, etc," so through vicissitudes that scarce any other spot could have passed the Swiss Cantons have remained the home of freedom. Montenegro also has its hardy mountaineers, who love to be free, but lack the Swiss character and stamina to maintain themselves. Had the Alps not been there to shield the eyrie the eagles would have been common fowls. So through long ages the Switzer has held his own and been free, but has not taught freedom to the world. Now, the cry is raised that Switzerland is the refuge of nihilists, anarchists and political refugees and has become dangerous to the peace of Europe, so European powers demand stronger regulations by Switzerland. The reply of the Swiss is dignified and to the point. The Alpine republic can make its laws and can enforce them without any help from Austria, Germany or Russia. But justice and dignity cannot count against men and guns, unless every mountain pass can be made a Thermopylæ and every night a Rütli. The crisis approaches when Europe will become republican or remain despotic. Switzerland has a recruit in France and may find a friend, if not an ally, in England, and for moral influence is sure of America. Europe may break the camel's back with a last straw if it attempts to bulldose little Switzerland.

TREATMENT OF SOLDIERS

An Officer of the U S Army Writes Upon the Subject

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, W T, Aug 29.

To the Editor of The Oregonian

In your article headed, "Soldiers in the Regular Army," taken from the Post Dispatch, St Louis, August 26, 1889, a reporter gives his experience as a soldier, in investigating the cause of desertion in the army.

The story alleges that the enlisted men are treated worse than slaves and many of them worse than dogs. Now from my personal knowledge of the service for twenty six years and twenty five of it as a non commissioned officer I have never seen a good man abused or beaten by an officer, but on the contrary have always seen them get all the indulgencies that were in the power of an officer to grant. I presume the reporter of the Despatch is something like Private William O'Donnell, of the 4th artillery, who published a book in 1884, and was known as the worst kind of a crank and guard house beat. If the reporter will give time and place upon which the facts of his article are based, and after a full investigation he is not found to be an hospital and guard house beat it will in my opinion, be a queer thing.

In regard to the food furnished the soldier it is as good as any second class hotel fare. Of course there is none of the everlasting boarding house pie or rancid butter, etc, fed him, which perhaps the reporter had indulged in before enlisting, and alas when he joined the service he found in it good and wholesome food, a thing to which he was not used. I will say that at this post, which is one of the largest in the United States, the enlisted man is treated as a man and a gentleman if he deserves it. Of course he cannot and does not expect to be fed like a guest at the Palace hotel in San Francisco. If the reporter thought that when he enlisted he was going there to play the lute at the expense of Uncle Sam he got left, and all such men had better stay out of the service.

Good men are always appreciated, and during my service I have served with two thirds of the army at different posts and speak from personal knowledge in regard to the treatment of the soldier.

SOME POLITICAL POINTERS,

From Pierce County and Other Parts of the New State.

A Talk With One of Mahone's Lieutenants—Political Plums and Who They May Fall To—The Capital and Other Questions

TACOMA, Aug 29.—The Pierce county republican convention, which meets to-day, will clear away the haze of the political atmosphere here. It is pretty well settled that the delegation will go as a unit, instructed for nobody, and that the interests of the county will be looked after by the twenty six delegates. Some talk has been made of instructing the delegates for a United States senator in the person of General John W Sprague, but as the friends of Hon Walter J Thompson will be just as numerous and perhaps more so in the convention I do not think that any instructions will be made. It is well understood that Pierce county wants a senator and it will be either one or the other of these two men. General Sprague, who has recently retired from the banking business, is over 70 years of age. Mr Thompson, president of the Merchants' National Bank, is but 37 years of age and in active business life with a host of friends in the county. Pierce county has no candidate for governor, but may pick up one of the supreme judges at Walla Walla. Whether that will be T L Stiles, W P Pritchard or Elwood Evans is of course not yet known.

"To tell you the truth we do not expect to get a governor and a senator too," said one of the delegates from King county to the Walla Walla convention, "but what we do expect is one of the United States senators."

Then Kinnear is only put up as a blind, I suggested.

"Not exactly that," he replied, "but King county is a great big county and we should be recognized. We do not believe that Ferry has the strength in the county that Kinnear has, and besides we had to take Squire if we took Ferry."

"Suppose Ferry gets more votes in the convention on the first ballot than Kinnear does, what will you do then?" was asked. The only reply was a significant shrug of the shoulders.

Here is the way a ticket was announced to-day by a well known politician:

Governor—L S Howlett, North Yakima
Lieutenant Governor—S C Wingard, Walla Walla
Secretary of State—O C White, Dayton
Treasurer—James Power, LaConner
Auditor—W A Inman, Colfax
Attorney General—T L Stiles, Tacoma
Superintendent of Public Instruction—Rev J R Thompson, Vancouver
Commissioner of Public Lands—T M Reed, Olympia
Supreme Judges—George Turner, Spokane Falls; Elmon Scott, Pomeroy; W Lair Hill, Seattle; W H Kellogg, Whatcom; R O Dunbar, Goldendale
Member of Congress—John L Wilson, Spokane Falls
United States Senators (two to be chosen)—Thomas H Brents, Walla Walla; W J Thompson, Tacoma; Watson C Squire, Seattle; George Turner, Spokane Falls; John B Allen, Walla Walla; Leigh S J Hunt, Seattle; W H Calkins, Spokane Falls

"Keep your eye on Pasco," said Captain W P Gray, of that place, as he discussed the capital question to a number of friends in the lobby of The Tacoma last night. He is of course for Pasco first, last and all the time, and believes it is going to be as much of a railroad center one of these days as Indianapolis is at present. How Pasco will come out of the ballot-boxes in October, alongside of Olympia, Ellensburgh and North Yakima remains to be seen.

Sam Collyer, cashier of the Merchants' National bank, has gone to San Francisco to attend the subsidy convention there. Congress is to be urged by the business men of the coast to do something toward starting steamship lines between Pacific coast cities and Asia. Collyer reminds me that I saw a man prominent in Washington territory politics a day or two ago, who was one of the republican members of the Michigan legislature that with the aid of democrats helped knife old Zach Chandler for the United States senate. Collyer was the last man who saw old Zach alive. It will be remembered that he was found dead at a leading hotel in Chicago. Mr Collyer, who was president of the Young Men's Republican Club of Chicago, had dined with Chandler that evening and left him when he retired. When Mrs Senator Eugene Hale, the daughter of the old Roman, was here some months ago she remembered that Mr Collyer was the last one who had seen her father while living and requested to be presented to him, which was done. The two or three republican members of the Michigan legislature who relegated old Zach to a back seat and placed in his stead the unfortunate Christiancy were all paid for their political treachery by offices under the weak [illegible] ministration of Mr Hayes and Carl Schurz.

Will Mahone win in Virginia? I asked Special Agent Chas Gee of the interior department who took the steamer to-day for Alaska. "I think the republicans will carry the Old Dominion this fall," was the reply. Mr Gee is a Virginian and one of the typical followers of the little Confederate general who has a constituency at the polls of fifty or sixty thousand ex-Confederate soldiers, besides the bulk of the colored voters and the union element of that state. He has stood by him and [illegible] the democracy of his native state ever since the war with the same vim and [illegible] that he fought for the lost cause, [illegible] building up a readjuster party among the natives and gradually educating them into the belief that the republican party is the party of progress and protection, the one under which the development of Virginia would go ahead. Nearly all the disaffection in the republican ranks there has disappeared and those who were fighting him have wheeled into line. Langston, the able colored man in the state who ran on an independent ticket for congress in the Petersburg district, is stumping for Mahone, and the administration is standing by him for the redemption of the state, which is a good deal more than it is doing in Washington territory, as nearly all of the democratic officeholders are still with us. Mahone is a [illegible], and it is remarkable how the young men of the state [illegible] [illegible] Walter J Thompson [illegible] Mr Thompson throws into business. Mr Gee is going to carefully look the field over in Alaska for the department and make a comprehensive report.

The water works, gas works and electric light works of this city are undergoing a change. The company saw that the city would be getting ahead of the supply [illegible] $100,000 in extending [illegible] new pipes [illegible] [illegible] the 1st of October there will be [illegible] [illegible] the Northern Pacific [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] great deal of wheat coming to [illegible] from Eastern Wash[illegible] [illegible]

Hon J [illegible] Lawyer [illegible], ex-Acting Governor and formerly [illegible] of the territory, wants to be one of the supreme judges of the new state.

With four new steam fire engines, a new Hayes hook and ladder truck and a paid fire department, the rates of insurance within the city of Tacoma will not be increased by the underwriters. The firemen are getting up a big tournament for the 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th of September with $4200 worth of prizes, the leading prize being $1000.

The Select Knights of Labor

KANSAS CITY, Aug 27.—The Supreme Legion of the Select Knights of Labor of America began its regular biennial session to-day. Six months ago the select knights were a branch of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, but at a special meeting last February it was decided to withdraw from the parent organization. The question at the present meeting was whether the name should be ratified. After considerable discussion the action of the special meeting was rescinded and the matter referred to a committee.

The following officers for the ensuing two years were announced: Supreme commander, Reid; supreme vice commander, E M Ford, Emporia, Kansas; supreme standard bearer, F W Averill, Kansas City; supreme senior workman, G W Lann, Chicago; trustees, R E Cowdry, Topeka, and J W Carr, Omaha.

PUBLIC SCHOOL AFFAIRS.

Annual Reports of the Librarian and Teacher of Drawing.

Education of the Eye and Hand—Instruction in the Ideals—Additions to the Library—Educating Literary Tastes

The subjoined reports of the drawing teacher and librarian of the public schools are taken from the sixteenth annual report of the public schools now in the hands of the printer.

REPORT OF THE DRAWING TEACHER.

Drawing has been a part of the curriculum of the schools for twelve years. We have a fine art room fully equipped and finely situated in regard to the adjustment of light, in the High school building.

We have had an annual exhibit of drawings at the Mechanics pavilion to show progress from year to year and as a reward to pupils for good work in that special department. We have also made three exhibits abroad—at the meeting of the National Educational Association at Madison, Wis, where our exhibit ranked with that of Columbus, O; at the New Orleans centennial, where it was awarded a diploma for excellent work, and at San Francisco last year, where three diplomas were given for excellent work; to the ladies technical school of design, New York, to the states of Oregon and Illinois.

The education of the eye and hand is the grand thought of this century. The foremost manual training and one of its chief [illegible] is drawing. It is the foundation stone of all manual arts—the handmaid of science—and the language of expression of the beautiful in nature.

In this age of electricity and steam we grasp the beautiful to make it useful and decorate the useful to make it beautiful for commerce [illegible] art as by her touch she enhances the value of the products of man's labor.

By proper instruction in drawing one must mean the cultivation of the eye and hand by the use of the pencil. But this is only the first and least important. It is more manual and less mental than the second [illegible] which is an instruction in the ideals of tasteful and decorative [illegible] which should be taught in parallel lessons in connection with the practical use of the pencil.

Once trained to recognize the beautiful and graceful in form and arrangement and to criticize all defects in this particular, the pupil has acquired a precious quality of mind useful in every occupation and in every station in life, whether subordinate or directive. Culture in taste, such as drawing gives, fits all labor for more lucrative stations and helps our industries by giving our commerce a firm hold on the markets of the world.

We are stepping on the threshold of another century. Labor as well as thought will receive its proper education. The camp fire of the pioneer has burned out. From its ashes rises civilization, in her wake flow the skill and taste of centuries, and may this grand Pacific slope, crowned with snow capped mountains kissed by beautiful sunsets, where everlasting spring abides, be the home of the highest civilization of the world. Very sincerely,

ELLEN C. TURNER,
Teacher of Drawing.

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN.

It is with pleasure that I report a year of progress in this important branch of our school work. Additions have been made to our list of books by appropriations from the general fund, 83 volumes; by gift of the publishing house of Barnes & Co, 3 volumes; also by courtesy of Hon J N Dolph various documents and reports from the department of the interior amounting to 22 volumes, besides the weekly Report of Patents and Inventions. Our bookshelves now make the following showing:

Historical works, 180 volumes; biography, 35; travels, 38; fiction, 130; science, 77; poetry, 2; critical and miscellaneous, 75. Total, 580 volumes.

Works added during the year—Historical, 46 volumes; miscellaneous, 31; juvenile, 6; reports and documents, 22.

Distributions—North school, 1040 volumes; Park school, 931; Failing school, [illegible]; Couch school, 511; Harrison school, 337; High school, 51. Total, 35[illegible] volumes, making an average to each pupil who has drawn books of two volumes per month. Many pupils in the various schools average one volume a week. It is evident that our library offers a large resource for supplementary reading, as the books are carefully selected with that end in view. It also affords to many bright children their only means of access to books.

For many years the library has seemed to struggle for existence, but owing to the vigilance of a few interested persons it has gradually reached a condition of healthy growth and activity.

The work of supervising the library has from the first been an entirely gratuitous one. Nine years ago the present librarian assumed charge of it. [illegible] six years she gave it her time and personal attention one afternoon each week during [illegible] pupils as she could from time to time command.

It is now four years since the plan was adopted of employing a tuition pupil as assistant librarian, allowing the services thus rendered to offset the regular charge for tuition. But during this time the library hours have been extended and the circulation of general reading matter as well as the demand for reference books has steadily increased so that now two assistants are required instead of one, and the work of [illegible] distribution of books has of necessity been intrusted to them.

Your librarian is of the opinion that the time has come when an enlarged management of the library is called for. Its shelves are gradually filling with valuable books. A cultivated taste for reading, and improved methods of study create an ever increasing demand, [illegible] that the library can furnish, and a choice collection of books fails for short of its purpose when not placed in the hands of one who is acquainted with books, takes knowledge of the needs of the pupil and can practice that rare art of placing a book in the hands of the child to whom it belongs.

This work can not be done by a teacher, if for no other reason because he or she is most needed in the library, she is in the nature of the case otherwise occupied in the schoolroom. Besides it requires a degree of mental alertness and concentration that can come only from fresh energy, not from that half expended in the daily work of teaching.

It is also important that the library should be open at least one half of each day in order that the books may accomplish the good for which they are intended. This would also [illegible] satisfactory discipline in the use of [illegible] library of the [illegible] as that could then be placed under competent supervision.

The expense of running the library for the past year has been the tuition of two pupils, or $80. With an expenditure of less than twice that sum [illegible] usefulness and the economical care of the books would be increased many fold.

In closing this report I wish to thank Miss Viola Ortschild and Mr Charles Davey for their valuable and faithful services as assistants during the year, and to recommend to your consideration the matter of opening the library daily and employing a competent librarian to take charge of it. Most respectfully,

ELLEN F. SPALDING.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Aug 29—The stock market to-day was quiet and stagnant outside of a few leading shares. These gave what tone the market possessed, and in them and a few specialties all the movements in the market were made The declining tendency in the central list was met by a renewal of activity and strength in Northern Pacific, and the early losses were generally quickly recovered. The upward movement in Northern Pacific was very pronounced and was accompanied by several rumors none of which were susceptible of corroboration Northern Pacific was supplanted in the afternoon by southwestern stocks, and Atchison and Missouri Pacific made marked gains on a large business. This movement was also the occasion of the circulation of numerous rumors and it was thought that Gould and Huntington would between them own and operate the Atchison by the first of the coming year and when this was met with a denial it was stated that Gould was to go into the Atchison directory, and that closer relations were to be established between the Atchison and the Missouri Pacific. After these movements had expended their force there was a reaction but the heavy acceptance of bonds by the treasury stiffened the market up again in the last hour and the close was quiet and steady to firm generally at slightly better figures than that of the opening Trusts, with the exception of common oil were dull, and moved within narrow lines.

Government bonds have been dull and heavy for 4s.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 30—Receipts of produce during the past 24 hours included 8000 ctls wheat 21 000 qr sks flour 3800 sks potatoes 14,000 ctls barley

Freights and Charters—The arrivals of deep sea tonnage have been light and mostly under prior charter The American ship General Knox was taken on spot for Liverpool at 35s. Other spot business was the rechartering of a couple of vessels. They were the British ship Scottish Dales iron, 2573 tons, at 36s 3d and the British ship Jessomene iron, 1898 tons at the same figure both for U K., with options of Havre or Antwerp Arrivals in under prior engagement were the British ship Othello, iron 1450 tons at 50s and the German ship Roland, iron 1348 tons, at 80s for U K Havre or Antwerp Lumber and coal chartering was slow, but rates are well maintained.

Wheat—The spot market has been drooping all the week Buyers have done little trading here and interior advices report a slower movement. Exporters having bought quite freely earlier in the month are well stocked for present and immediate future wants and are consequently less disposed to active purchasing The withdrawal of large buyers has had the effect of gradually weakening values. Offerings are fair to liberal, although holders generally ask an advance on current quotations. No shipping is nominal at $1 28¾ to $1 30, the latter only quoted for round lots. Choice milling wheat fetches $1 32½ Futures—There has been a fair speculative trade in options with prices fluctuating within a narrow range. Some round lots of buyer year changed hands at $1 38½ to $1 39 the latter being about the highest price during the week To day's forenoon sales 100 tons buyer year at $1 3 ¾ 200 tons at $1 37⅝ 400 tons at $1 37¼ Buyer season sold down to $1 41½ seller year (new) $1 29

Afternoon session—Buyer year opened at $1 37⅞ and closed at $1 37¾ Buyer season at $1 42 seller year, new at $1 29

Barley—Values have been steady to a fair demand. Receipts for the week have been moderately large, and present stocks show a slight accumulation. Offerings were plentiful but generally held at market quotations Choice feed continues to find buyers at 6 ½@68¾ No 1 feed 65c, inferior and low grades 6 ½@65¾ brewing, steady at 82½@97½c. Futures very quiet little or no change made in values buyer year 8 c

Afternoon session—Buyer year 83¾c

Oats—Steady at the decline The demand has been mostly local speculators giving little attention to the market. Receipts have been fair and offerings liberal. Choice feed generally quoted at 115, although some sales have been made at $1 17½ for extra choice No 1 feed $1 10@1 12½ common grades $1 07½@1 07½ milling $1 10@1 2

Bran—The demand is steady stocks fair and no advance in prices established Oregon product meets with custom at $13@13 50 per ton middlings steady at $14@17 50 per ton for all kinds.

Wool—Quiet Buyers and sellers apart, the latter asking prices which are above an export basis Eastern advices continue to report flat markets, with prices against sellers when forced to realize Quote Oregon valley wool nominal at 20@—, Eastern at 12@20c

Hops—No movement of importance yet reported Buyers are making a few contracts with growers but the latter as a rule refuse to accept current bids and prefer waiting future developments Quotations wholly nominal

Potatoes—Receipts liberal the market well supplied with the different varieties. Burbanks 70c@$1 1⅓, Peerless 50@05c

Bags—Weak An auction sale of a quarter of a mill on Calcutta took place on the 27th prices ranging from $6 25 to $6 [illegible] per 100 Quotations at 6½@6⅝c

CHICAGO MARKETS.

THE SAN FRANCISCO POSTOFFICE

A Denial by Colonel Irish and a Reassertion by a Press Correspondent.

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 28—John P Irish who is one of the commissioners appointed by the government to select a site for the postoffice in this city, last night denied the statement published here yesterday and telegraphed THE OREGONIAN that the government had taken the matter into its own hands and had selected a site for the post office, paying therefor $800 000

The denial was telegraphed to Washington and to day the special correspondent of an evening paper telegraphed the following from Washington I am not surprised that the denial is made of the selection of the site by the postoffice department for a new postoffice at San Francisco I expected it would be denied but that doesn't alter the facts The site has been selected as stated and Contractor Rorke of Philadelphia will soon arrive in San Francisco in connection with this matter Naturally the commissioners feel hurt but the selection was made without reference to them no matter what the gentleman who warms over the stale chestnuts for the Alta may say The postoffice department has been much annoyed by the apathy of the commission and is anxious to have the site secured before the meeting of congress "

Seattle Daily Press

It is as plain as a pike-staff that had ex Governor Ferry not been allied to Squire, Kinnear would not have again been placed in the field The lines of their respective canvasses run parallel They helped and are helping each other Ferry would have strengthened and would now strengthen Judge Hoyt's candidacy for the United States senate By reason of the alliance of Squire with Ferry the fight is made against both There is no use in remaining blind to the fact that outside of King county Kinnear has of himself no considerable following If the decision was now left to the voters of Washington Ferry would be nominated and elected governor by an overwhelming majority His name on the republican state ticket would strengthen it This is a fact whether it is an agreeable one to some people or not Colonel Squire should withdraw and thus simplify the situation

SALESMAN—Yes, this is the stove you inquired for As you say it does not look exactly like the one your mother recommended you to buy and which she thinks so much of but it is a Charter Oak Range We have the Cook Stoves of the same make but the Ranges are used more generally now as they are more convenient How long has your mother had her stove?

YOUNG MARRIED LADY—Oh! ever so long She bought it when I was a baby, and has been using it ever since and she told me I must get the same kind

SALESMAN—Well this is the same kind That is a Charter Oak but you must remember that twenty years is a long time and improvements have been made since your mother got hers This Range has the wonderful Wire Gauze Oven Door, which you have probably heard of as it is known and sold everywhere in connection with our Stoves and Ranges

YOUNG MARRIED LADY—Oh! I remember now She spoke about that but I can't understand why that should make it so much better than our old stove as that was as good as it could be.

SALESMAN—There is no doubt about its being much better it is a wonderful improvement. It bakes everything so much nicer and the meats are not dried up like they are in the old fashioned tight ovens Why a steak can be broiled in that oven as perfectly as over a charcoal fire and the natural juices of the meat, which make it so appetizing will all be retained It is just the same with roast meats Of course it is needless for me to speak of its other good qualities as your mother's advice has made that unnecessary

YOUNG MARRIED LADY—Well of course I will take it Please have it put up as soon as you can, as we have no stove yet. We are just commencing housekeeping, you know

SAPOLIO

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry To use it is to value it…

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil-cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO. One cake will prove all we say. Be a clever housekeeper and try it.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. THERE IS BUT ONE SAPOLIO.

TWO COURTESANS ON A TEAR.

Their Horse Runs Away—The Buggy Smashed and They Are Supposed To Be Hurt.

Two nymphs du pave procured a horse and buggy from the Grand stable about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and nothing further was heard from the outfit until about 10 o'clock, when a horse with only a bridle and a few fragments of harness, was caught near the corner of Fourth and Pine streets. The animal was considerably bruised up and blood trickled down from numerous scratches, indicating that it had come out second best in a serious smash-up.

This was the horse the girls had taken from the Grand stable. The buggy was afterwards found in a state of total dilapidation at the corner of Second and Main streets. The girls were gone.

It was subsequently learned by one of the stable hands that the girls while in a beastly state of intoxication had met with two accidents the second of which resulted seriously to themselves. They had been out for a drive on the White house road and on their return their buggy was upset somewhere in the vicinity of the Red house. Several gentlemen went to their assistance and righted up the buggy, which was only slightly damaged, and they again drove on as well as their maudlin condition would permit. At the corner of Second and Main streets their vehicle was again upset and totally wrecked while the horse disengaged itself from the harness and continued its mad career until caught on Fourth street as stated. The girls who are supposed to have been seriously injured disappeared.

Although diligent inquiry was made regarding their whereabouts, they were nowhere to be found. It was learned that one of them went by the name of Miss Ray and the other by the euphonious cognomen of "Jim the Penman." Both are recent arrivals from San Francisco.

IS IT A CHINESE 'JOB'?

Miss Owey Arrested on a Charge of Stealing a Large Amount.

Constable Simmons yesterday arrested a Chinese woman known as Miss Owey on complaint of Lee Lung who claims to be her lawfully-wedded husband who charges her with grand larceny.

Lung after the arrest of his alleged wife told a reporter a long story of his domestic troubles. He claimed to have married the woman in Victoria B C in 1886. For some time he has suspected his wife of infidelity but yesterday he was convinced that his suspicions were well founded. His spouse packed up and left him marrying another Celestial.

Lung did not care anything for his wife's affections but that was not all he lost so he claims. He furnished the reporter with the following account of personal property he claims the woman took with her, to which she has no right:

Twenty $20 gold pieces	$400 00
Twenty $10 gold pieces	200 00
One hundred 50-cent pieces	50 00
One pair of bracelets	2 50
One pair of earrings	15 00
One hairpin	7 00
Total	$674 50

The woman who was released on depositing $750 bail, will have an examination before Justice Tuttle to-day. The value Lung places on the property leads many to believe that he is "jobbing" with a view of again gaining possession of the woman.

WHERE THE INDIAN YOUTH IS TAUGHT

Changes in the Management of the Chemawa School—Pupils in the Hop Fields.

Several changes have recently been made in the management of the Chemawa Indian school. The new superintendent Rev Irwin of Union, who succeeds General Biddle has assumed the duties of his office and a few changes in the corps of teachers result at the same time.

Mr Rodgers, the erstwhile principal who held office during the first year's regime of Colonel Lee and again under General Biddle has been succeeded by Mr Lane of Salem. Mr Lane has been principal of the public schools of Salem for some time and is in every way qualified for the office. Dr Miller Clerk Morris and Mrs Bristow one of the teachers will retain their positions. Miss Godley, the talented music teacher will sever her connection with the institution on the 1st of September. The heads of the manual departments will remain the same.

About 100 of the larger Indian boys and girls left for the hop fields at Lola about ten miles from Chemawa a few days ago. They are under contract to remain eighteen days and all the money they make after paying necessary expenses will go to their own individual pockets. The school does not reopen until October 1 and this interim will give them an opportunity to make a little money.

A RUNAWAY TRAIN

Four Box Cars and an Engine Plunge Down the Railroad Incline—No One Injured.

As a yard engine of the O R & N Co was moving four boxcars down the incline near Ainsworth's dock yesterday, preparatory to switching them off on another track the brakes failed to control the cars and they pushed the engine off the end of the incline to another section some four feet over the tender struck on the ties and the engine followed landing on the track the end of the first boxcar running off and projecting over the end of the incline about four feet.

When the engineer and fireman saw that the engine was going off the incline they jumped and escaped uninjured. The work of getting the train back on the incline was commenced at once the cars remaining on the track being hauled away at once and a force of men with jackscrews started to raise the other car. With the proper appliances which railroad companies always have handy the job of getting cars and engines back on a track is soon accomplished.

HE DREW A WINCHESTER,

And Was Fined and Sentenced to Imprisonment.

James Sweitzer one of the young men arrested in the Harney valley country for resisting a deputy United States marshal in the discharge of his duties by drawing a Winchester rifle on him and who pleaded guilty in the United States circuit court was sentenced to pay a fine and to serve a term of imprisonment with the understanding that in case he was not [illegible] he should be entered [illegible] further term of imprisonment is still in jail his friends not having paid his fine. An order was made in the United States circuit court yesterday that he be brought in court on Saturday August 31 to receive the additional sentence. Sweitzer is rather a nice looking young fellow and it is rough on him to be confined in jail but he must be taught that it will not do to haul a rifle on a United States marshal.

CŒUR D'ALENE COMMISSION.

It Is Meeting With Success in Treating With the Indians—Mines and Timber.

From Mr L S Shipley who is just down from Cœur d'Alene, it is learned that the commission consisting of General Ben Simpson Hon J H Shoup and Captain N B Humphrey, who went up some three weeks since to negotiate with the Cœur d'Alene Indians for the surrender of the mineral and timber lands and navigable waters on their reservation, is making very satisfactory progress with its business.

The Indians were at first inclined to receive the commission coolly as the $150 000 promised them by the government when they surrendered a part of their reservation before has not yet been paid and there is other money still due them for damages by the railroad running through their reservation.

Satisfactory assurances having been given the Indians that these moneys would be paid and reasonable excuses given for the delay the Indians expressed a willingness to treat with the commission and as General Simpson has expressed his intention of recommending that a fair and reasonable price be paid them for their lands the negotiations are proceeding favorably and it is expected will be concluded in about ten days when the commission will return here to make up their report, prepare maps etc after which General Simpson will proceed to Washington to lay the result before the department.

The commissioners when they first went up notified the Indians of the object of their visit and were given permission to prospect the reservation and ascertain the extent of the mineral and timber lands.

They were very much pleased with the result of their examination and are satisfied that the lands they have selected will form a very valuable addition to the Cœur d'Alene district and produce a neat amount of wealth. They were furnished with a lot of samples of ore from the mines on the reservation both from Wolf Lodge Bay at the north end of the lake and from the country between the Cœur d'Alene and St Joe rivers.

The commissioners have not decided exactly as to the quantity of land they will bargain for but it will probably be a considerable portion of the reservation.

AMUSEMENTS.

Last Performance of 'One of the Bravest'—Kathleen Mavourneen—The Wyatt Opera Company.

Charles McCarthy's thrilling drama One of the Bravest still continues to draw good houses at the New Park. The play is full of fun and exciting incidents. Any member of the fire department can secure tickets for the matinee Saturday free of charge.

CATHERINE MAVOURNEEN

The Musee Theater continues to draw crowds every evening. Catherine Mavourneen is quite a hit while the musee's attractions are being added to right along. The same play will hold the boards for the rest of the week.

WYATT OPERA COMPANY

The San Francisco Music and Drama speaking of Wyatt's English Opera Company which opens at the New Park next Monday night says: Mrs Padelford the prima donna of the organization informs me that she is devoting most of her waking hours to hard study and practice and I have no doubt that with her ambition to excel combined with her beauty of form and face her grace of movement and charm of manner the Los Angeles public will be completely captivated. She regrets that she ever assumed the nom du theater of Bertina Girard and will hereafter use her proper name Mrs Padelford.

SINNERS IN THE TOILS

What Was Done in the City Police Court Yesterday.

Police court proceedings have been very light for several days past no important cases having come up for trial. Yesterday Judge Tanner dealt out justice to the following minor offenders:

Jane Murphy Henry J Hight and Mike Flynn charged with being drunk fined $10 each. William Smith Robert Miller and James Miles same offense $5 each.

M DeBow a hackman found guilty of violating the ordinance prohibiting drivers of hacks standing their vehicles in places where printed posters advise them to the contrary was fined $10. This is the first case of the kind since the posters have been displayed and for this reason the minimum fine was imposed. Property owners are supposed to have some rights in the premises and hereafter violators will be dealt with more [illegible].

[illegible] and [illegible] Frank Martin and John Russell three toughs charged with vagrancy were found guilty and the court fined them $60, $40 and $30 respectively.

William Richmond and Colgate Hales were fixed $10 each for trespassing. Their offense consisted of sleeping in a box car without obtaining the consent of the owners.

SPEED ASSOCIATION RACES

Good Meeting Promised—Stables Being Enlarged—Fast Horses Coming.

Already the Portland Speed Association are making active preparation for the meeting to be held at City View Park September 10, 11, 12, 13 and 14. The entries are coming in rapidly and all of the good horses in Oregon, Washington territory, California, Montana and Idaho are expected.

The association will have a great deal more stable room at this meeting than last. Workmen are now at work constructing thirty new stalls.

Every inducement is being offered to get good horses here for the meeting. To do this the association has determined to offer larger purses than will be given at the state fair at Salem.

A CHILD INSTANTLY KILLED

A Little Daughter of Professor J F E[illegible]'s Fatally Kicked by a Horse.

News has been received of a fatal and most shocking accident at Forest Grove about noon Wednesday. A correspondent writes from Forest Grove under date of August 28:

EXODUS TO THE HOP FIELDS.

Stringency in the Labor Market Caused by 800 Chinamen Leaving the City.

A gentleman in conversation with a reporter yesterday stated that it was next to impossible to get Chinese laborers.

"I have been trying to get a small crew of Chinamen to do some clearing for me," said he, "and though I offered higher wages than is usually paid for this kind of work my efforts have been unsuccessful. I have skirmished around three or four days. I have seen all of the leading labor contractors and all the satisfaction I can get is that they will try and get the men for me.

"From my experience during the past few days I have concluded to give up looking any further. The contractors tell me that most of the available laborers are out picking hops. A few have already returned and they are awaiting the payment of their time checks before undertaking anything else. There is one thing that has impressed me very strongly as a result of my inquiries and that is the spirit of independence shown by the Chinamen. They are no longer so anxious to procure work as they once were."

[illegible] the prominent Front street merchant and labor contractor was approached in regard to the matter and he too admitted that there was a great stringency in the labor market at present. "It is true," said he, "that a large exodus of Chinamen has taken place to the hop fields, which accounts for the scarcity of laborers. A [illegible] 800 Chinamen have left Portland to engage in hop picking. They have gone to the Puyallup valley, to Independence and to a few smaller hop fields along the Columbia."

The men get 60 cents a box for picking and make on an average from $1 to $1.50 per day. This is too much of an inducement not to be taken advantage of. In a [illegible] a few weeks and lay up enough money to last them for some time.

A BOOM IN GOOSE HOLLOW

Scene of Activity—Times Very Lively Out There.

Goose Hollow as that portion of the city south of Jefferson and west of Twelfth street used to be called is having a boom and is about as lively a place as can be found in town. In short everything is humming and the goose hangs high out there.

Some fifty men are employed on the Fourteenth street sewer and about twenty teams and a corresponding number of men are making a twenty foot fill on Thirteenth street. Mr Patterson is getting his new steam laundry ready for business and a large force of men are putting the finishing touches on it while another gang is moving his old laundry buildings to the block he has leased.

Then there are a number of men grading for the power house for the cable road and a number of teams hauling iron for the road and a lot of men at work on the trestle lying upon and taken altogether Goose hollow is a very busy place.

A NEW BALLOON

Professor P H Redmond Will Give Another Free Ascension Next Sunday.

Professor P H Redmond who has given several balloon ascensions lately all under more or less unfavorable circumstances will give another next Sunday evening at 6 o'clock weather and wind permitting.

Professor Redmond's balloon Oregon which he made recently did not come up to his expectations so he secured another which is guaranteed to go over a mile high and this will be used next Sunday. Hot air of course will be used this being the best for ascensions where the aeronaut performs on a trapeze while ascending and coming down.

The balloon will be inflated and sent up from where it was two weeks ago next Sunday at the East Side landing of the Jefferson street ferry.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE.

For quick raising, the Royal Baking Powder is superior to all other leavening agents. It is absolutely pure and wholesome and of the highest leavening power. It is always uniform in strength and quality and never fails to make light sweet, most palatable and nutritive food. Bread, biscuits, muffins, cake, etc raised with Royal Baking Powder may be eaten hot without distressing results to the most delicate digestive organs. It will keep in any climate without deterioration.

Prof H A Mott, U S Government Chemist, after examining officially the principal baking powders of the country, reported:

"The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure for I have so found it in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government.

"Because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar and for other reasons dependent upon the proper proportions of the same, and the method of its preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public.
